RICH MAN FLEECED OUT OF $10,000 BY FAKE PRIZE FIGHT

Henry O. Schroeder, a Wealthy Retired Merchant of Chicago, Asks Police to Find Man Who Swindled Him in St. Louis County Two Weeks Ago.

SWINDLERS HAD $36,000 OF THEIR OWN IN GAME

Bogus Fight Held in a Prominent Place, but No News About It Reached the Officials at Clayton—The Gang Said They "Had Things Fixed."

Henry O. Schroeder, a wealthy Chicago retired merchant, who was swindled out of $10,000 through betting on a fake prize fight at Ramona Park in St. Louis County April 24, arrived in St. Louis Friday and went to Police Headquarters to ask that the sharpers who fleeced him out of the money be arrested.

Though the fight took place in a conspicuous place, the St. Louis County authorities say they know nothing about it and have taken no action. In working the swindle the men used $36,000 of their own money, the victim having $18,000 in his possession for several days.

Detective McQuellan of St. Louis and Detective McGuire of Chicago went to Clayton Friday to make a complaint to Sheriff Herpel. They told their story of the swindle and of the arrest of one of the men in Chicago, while Herpel listened quietly.

"I never heard of the affair before," said Herpel when the detectives had finished. "I know nothing about it."

Herpel then arose and walked out of the office without making any further comment.

The swindlers who got Schroeder's money boasted that they had things "fixed" in the county.

The fight occurred at 4 p. m., April 24, near the Ramona Park Lake, 12 miles northwest of St. Louis. Preliminaries were arranged at the fashionable Hamilton Hotel in St. Louis.

Schroeder said to a Post-Dispatch reporter Friday:

"On April 3, at my home at 1816 Arlington place, Chicago, I received a telephone message from a man who said that he was Philip Besseler. I had met Besseler a short time before at a hotel. He said he wanted to see me, and I made an engagement to meet him at my home the next night.

"He came and made a great impression on my family. He played the piano and sang and we had a most enjoyable evening. When he left at 10:30 p. m., he asked me to take a walk with him. We went to Jann's saloon, near my home.

Introduced Prizefighter.

"There Besseler introduced me to a young man, Clarence Class. He told me that Class was a great prizefighter, an unknown, who could whip all of the professionals of his weight.

"He said Class was looking for a manager. I was not asked to put up any money at that time.

"On April 15 Class came to me with a letter from St. Louis signed G. F. Walker. It said that Walker had a prizefighter named Williams who wanted a match with Class. 'Now,' said Class to me, 'I would like for you to be my manager. I will pay you a good salary and stand all of your expenses.'

"Two days later we came to St. Louis. Class took me to the Hamilton Hotel, where he said all of those interested in the fight were stopping.

"There I met a man who said he was G. F. Walker, manager of Jack Williams. I remained there a week and Walker and Class and I had champagne dinners every day. They wouldn't let me pay for anything.

"Class gave me all the money needed and told me to 'go the limit and not be cheap.' The first time we went to dinner he gave me $2500. The next time he gave me $5000, then $6000, and so on until I had $18,000 of his money and hadn't touched a cent of my own. I thought he was the best sport I ever saw.

"He kept telling me to bet his money on the fight as though it were my own. A few days before the fight Walker began to banter Class for a wager. They talked about it a lot and finally Class asked me how much of his money I had. I told him $18,000 and he said he would bet it all. Walker took him up.

"Walker put up his money in cash and we took the $36,000 to the Jefferson Bank and deposited it. It began to look pretty good to me, and when Walker kept offering to bet me 'any amount' I wired to Chicago for $18,000. For some reason my bankers didn't send the money and I went up there after it. They agreed to postpone the fight until I came back.

"On the morning of April 24, the day of the fight, we drew all of the money out of the Jefferson Bank, $36,000 in all, including my $10,000. It was put in a valise to be turned over to the stakeholder.

"They had pitched a regular ring, with the posts and the ropes, and everything was ready for the fight, when Class said he couldn't go on because he had left a very necessary part of his costume at the hotel.

"'I'll have to go back and get it,' he said.

"'And I'll go with you,' said the stakeholder. With the valise they went away and were gone about an hour. But they came back and brought the valise with them and everything looked all right.

"The fight began. The men were about evenly matched and the first round was a whirlwind. They went at it hot and heavy in the second round, but just when they got to mixing things Class slipped and fell. He lay there and said he was unable to fight any more because he had sprained his back.

"Then the referee disqualified Class and awarded the fight to Williams.

Talked of Another Fight.

"Walker came over and slapped me on the back and said, 'It's too bad, old man, but I'm dead game. I'll give you a chance to get your money back. As soon as Class is well we'll have another fight and I'll bet you $20,000 on the result. That's fair enough, isn't it?'

"This looked all right to me and I went back to Chicago to get some more money. I spoke to my attorney about it and he said I had been 'stung,' or something of that kind. A detective was put on the case and Class was arrested in Chicago on a charge of fraud. He is now out on $15,000 bond."

W. E. Berger, cashier of the Jefferson Bank, said Friday that Mr. Schroeder must be mistaken regarding the deposit of the money in that institution.

"We have no record of any transaction of the kind," said Mr. Berger, "and had any such large sum been deposited and withdrawn in a short time, I would have known about it."

FRENCH PISTOL DUEL HARMLESS

PARIS, May 11.—Lucien Millevoye, editor of La Patrie of this city, and a Nationalist member of the Chamber of Deputies, fought a duel with pistols today with Count Mathieu de Noailles, as a result of the exciting street encounter which took place between them May 9, when Millevoye broke his cane over the Count's head.

Two shots were exchanged at 25 paces, both without result.

WIFE FOOLED HIM BY BLACK DOMINO RUSE

Sigmund G. Gelbart, an Attorney, Aided by Actress' Testimony Gets Divorce.

DANCERS LAUGHED AT HIM

His Wife Got Another in Her Mask to Deceive Him.

AN ACTOR HELPED HER

Afterward He Bound Her Sprained Ankle and Husband Left Her.

Mrs. Selma Gelbart, a woman of striking appearance, and Ernest Robert, a German actor, arranged a black domino transformation scene at a masquerade ball to fool Sigmund G. Gelbart, an attorney, according to evidence given Friday in the divorce case of Gelbart against Mrs. Gelbart. She also permitted the German actor to bandage her ankle when it was sprained and received love letters from her Kansas City cousin.

The black domino transformation scene occurred at Concordia Hall, where a society gave a masquerade ball Feb. 16. Gelbart and Mrs. Magda Schmitz, a German actress known on the stage as Magda Dennis, who assisted in the deception, told about it.

"I don't dance," said Gelbart, "but Mrs. Gelbart wanted to go and I consented to take her after I had asked her if Ernest Robert, the actor, was going to be there and she had assured me that he was not, because he had told her that he was going to another place that night.

"When we reached the hall she excused herself to go to the ladies' room and said she would soon be back. I waited half an hour and she did not come back. I looked around on the floor for her and I could not find her. Finally I asked some ladies if they had seen my wife. They laughed and said: 'There she is, over there, in the black domino.' I looked and there were two black dominoes. I said, 'Who is the other black domino?' They laughed again and said that was Ernest Robert.

"I watched the woman in the black domino until she came around near me, and I spoke to her, supposing she was my wife. I told her the butcher and the baker and everybody else was laughing at me and making a fool of me, and begged her to stay away from Robert.

"Later she appeared unmasked on the floor and I learned that they had worked a transformation scene on me by getting another woman to put on the black domino to fool me."

Mrs. Schmitz told of putting on Mrs. Gelbart's domino at the request of Robert and Mrs. Gelbart, for a joke, and of Gelbart having reproached her in the belief that she was Mrs. Gelbart.

It was while Mr. and Mrs. Gelbart were hurrying to catch a car after the ball that Mrs. Gelbart sprained her ankle. That led to the bandaging incident the next evening, and the final separation of the couple.

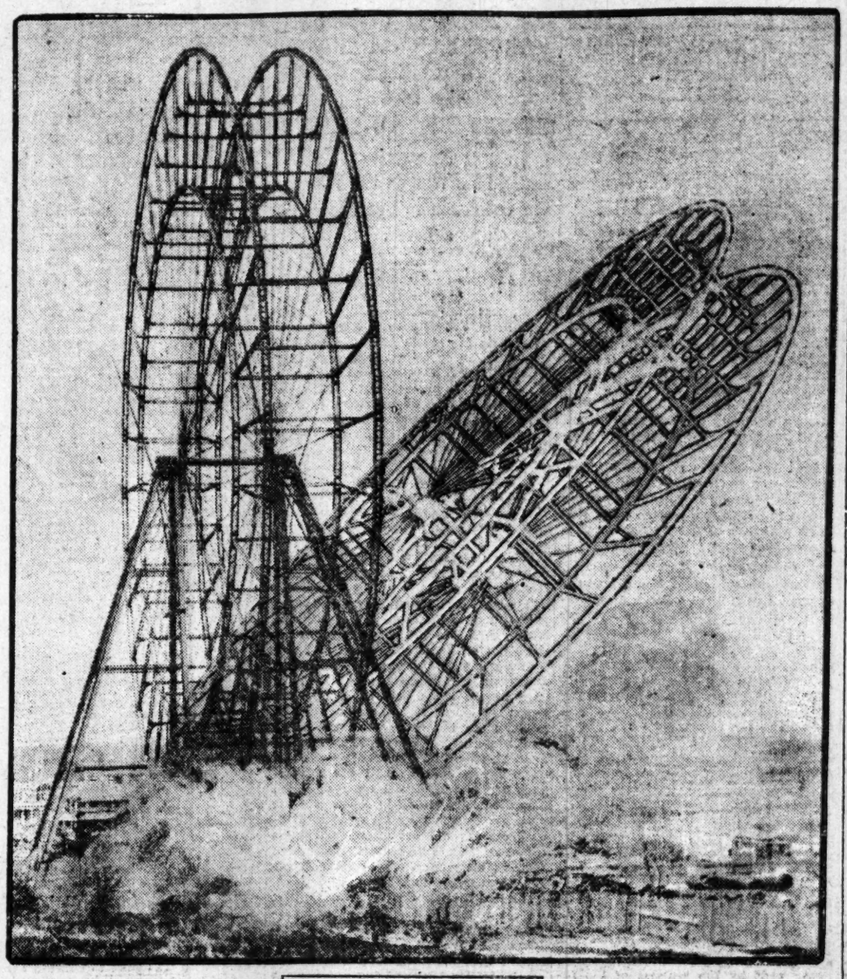

"When I found out the next day," said Gelbart, "about the transformation scene, I wrote a strong letter to Robert. I admit it was a very strong letter. I told him never to come to my house again.

"That very evening this actor came to my house at 1206 Blackstone avenue. He brought the letter with him. He said it was an insulting letter. He made an awful noise and wanted to hit me. I pretended to be reading a paper and my wife knocked it out of my hands.

"Finally, after both of them had said all kinds of things to me, they went into the dining room. I stayed in the parlor and pretended to be reading. I heard her say, 'Don't touch that,' and went into the dining room to see what was going on. My wife and that actor

DYNAMITE ONLY JARS BIG WHEEL

Forty-Six Sticks of Explosive Fails to Wreck Foundations of Pillars.

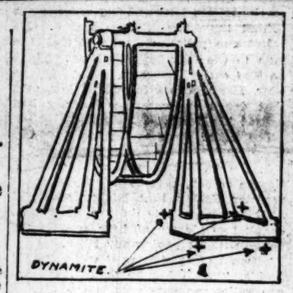

Wrecking the big Ferris Wheel at the World's Fair grounds has proved to be a more difficult task than the contractors imagined. After studying the huge whirler from various points of view the decision was made that if it were lying on its side instead of being supported in vertical position, the work of cutting rivets and separating the steel framework would be easier.

So the contractors set about throwing the wheel on its side. They concluded this could be done by wrecking the pillars that support one end of the axle about which the wheel revolved. These pillars rest in huge blocks of concrete as hard as granite.

It was decided to wreck these concrete foundations on the north side of the wheel so that it would tumble in that direction where there was plenty of room. Holes were drilled in the concrete and 46 sticks of dynamite were placed in position. They were connected by wire and the wire was strung to a safe distance.

The dynamite was exploded at 11:30 a. m. Friday. The concrete foundations were shattered somewhat and bits of the rock were thrown 100 feet in all directions. But the foundations were too solid and the wheel remained as erect as it has always been and apparently it was as solid as ever.

Workmen at once began drilling more holes in the concrete in preparation for further dynamiting. It was said that the holes would be drilled deeper and that heavier charges of dynamite would be used when the next blast is fired.

SPRING IS HERE NOW TO STAY

Only Warm, Bright Days Are Now in Sight.

Miss Spring G. Spring arrived in St. Louis after an extensive tour of the South Friday. To a Post-Dispatch reporter Miss Spring said coyly:

"Really, I cannot tell how long I will remain in St. Louis. I like the place very well, so far as I have seen, but my friends say I am fickle and I guess I am. I may stay until summer, but it is just possible I will leave the city for a few days before settling here for the season. My little thermometer which I always carry in my handbag registered 57 degrees at 7 o'clock this morning. If it doesn't go lower than that I will stay here."

The forecast: Fair and warmer Friday night and Saturday. Fresh southerly winds.

Temperatures are higher in nearly all parts of the country except in the extreme east and on the Pacific Coast.

COLUMBIA STUDENTS FALL, SHOT AND CUT, FIGHTING CIRCUS MEN

Two Seriously Wounded and Twenty Injured in Desperate Battle With Pistols, Knives and Razors That Followed Attempt to Wreck Train Leaving After Performance.

SHOWMEN WITH STAKES RUSH RIOTERS IN TENT

Fight is Renewed on Wabash Tracks Soaped with Grease After Car is Thrown —Mayor Vainly Implores Students to Discontinue Battle—Circus Man Shot.

STUDENTS SERIOUSLY INJURED IN COLUMBIA, MO., CIRCUS RIOT

The following Missouri State University students are known to have been seriously injured in the battle with circus employes at Columbus, Mo., last night:

MAYNARD M. McDOLE of Craig, Mo., student in the Academic Department; shot in the head; condition critical.

LEONARD WADDELL of Kansas City, Mo., student in the Academic Department; shot in the arm.

C. C. BAILEY of Carthage, Mo., student in University Training School.

THOMAS F. MONTGOMERY of Bolckow, Mo., injured about the head.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

COLUMBIA, Mo., May 11.—Driven from the tent of the Cole Bros. circus by showmen armed with tent stakes at the conclusion of the performance here last night, Missouri University students soaped the Wabash Railroad tracks, derailed one car of the circus train as it was moving out of Columbia and brought their night's fun to an end with a desperate battle with the circus employes.

Two students and at least one of the showhands were shot; several other combatants on both sides were stabbed with knives or razors and about twenty students were clubbed or beaten.

The wounded students were hurried to the Columbia Hospital, where a number of operations were performed this morning. The physician declined to state how many of the victims are fatally injured, but it is known that there is little hope of saving the life of Maynard M. McDole of Craig, Mo., who was shot in the head. Leonard Waddell of Kansas City also is seriously wounded. A bullet struck him in the arm. So many battered students presented themselves at the hospital that the physicians refused to attend to any except the seriously injured, and the others were given attention at the university.

The wounded circus hands were not taken to the hospital, but were cared for on board the show train, which left Columbia this morning. One of them carried a bullet in his jaw as a souvenir of his reception by the students. It is claimed, however, that he was accidentally shot by one of his fellow employes.

Refused to Leave Tent.

The refusal of the students to either leave the tent when the performance was ended or to pay to witness the "concert" led to the first encounter.

A committee of students previously had asked the proprietors of the circus for a reduction in the price of admission to the main performance. This courtesy was granted, and about 1000 students passed into the tent yesterday afternoon, paying 25 cents each. There was little trouble in the afternoon. The students sat in a body, apart from the other spectators, and conented themselves with "guying" the individual performances and "roasting" the show in general.

The same students, apparently, were in the crowd which attended the night performance. They sang college songs, whistled derisively at the performers and employes and threatened once or twice to put an end to the show.

When the main performance was concluded the students remained in their seats, declaring that they intended to see the "concert." They declined to buy tickets until they were convinced that the "concert" was worth the price. One of the managers addressed the students, ordering them to leave the tent. They answered him with hisses and catcalls, commanding him to "bring on his show."

Rushed With Tent Stakes.

The manager placed a whistle to his lips and sounded a signal. The circus employes appeared in company formation, armed with tent stakes. They rushed the students, driving them from the tent. A few blows were exchanged, and the students vowed revenge.

Mayor Stanley Smith was notified that trouble seemed imminent, and he hurried to the scene. He found the students massed outside the tent, evidently waiting for the employes to appear. The Mayor pleaded with them to disperse. A few of the students straggled off, but most of them remained.

Then someone conceived the idea of soaping the rails. The crowd received the suggestion with delight. The students formed a procession and marched out the Wabash tracks to a point about a mile from the station. They greased the rails thoroughly and placed some old ties across the track.

When the circus train struck this obstruction one of the cars was derailed. The showmen swarmed out, armed with clubs. They rushed the crowd of students and the battle was on.

They fought back and forth across the track. At first only clubs were used. Then knives were drawn and the battle grew more furious. Finally revolvers were cracking, and three figures were prostrate on the ground.

McDole was the first to fall. There was a pause in the hostilities when someone shouted that a student was killed. A score of the combatants rushed to McDole's side. They found him apparently dying from a bullet wound in the head. While friends were removing him to a place of safety the fight broke out again, and a showman went down with a bullet in the jaw. He was placed aboard the circus train, and then the other wounded student was discovered. He had a bullet wound in the arm. He is believed to be Leonard Waddell, whose home is in Kansas City.

It is not known how many circus employes were wounded. When the fighting died out they remained in their cars until the track was cleared, some hours later, and the train moved away.

Knives and Pistols Used.

When the news of the battle reached the university there was danger of further rioting. Many of the students who had not participated in the disturbance in the tent or in the fighting which followed suggested another attack on the train. Mayor Smith made another address to the university corps, pleading with them to avert further bloodshed instead of inciting it. The Mayor volunteered his services as a nurse, assisting the physicians and students to care for the wounded.

At the hospital it was declared that the physicians would not give out any information until it was positively known how many of their patients were seriously injured. It was admitted, however, that McDole was in a critical condition. There were still several students on the operating tables.

The university authorities, like the physicians, will have little to say until all the facts are in their possession. They are investigating, however, and it is supposed that the rioters will be called before the faculty. Many of the students who were only slightly hurt made no report of their injuries.

CARL SCHURZ RALLIES, BUT END IS NEAR

Doctors Have No Hope of Saving Former Senator From Missouri.

1869—United States Senator from Missouri.

1877—Secretary of the Interior in Hayes' Cabinet.

1892—Regular contributor to Harper's Weekly in place of George William Curtis.

1899—Celebration in New York of his seventieth year.

1906—Publication of "Reminiscences of a Long Life."

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, May 11.—Carl Schurz, the venerable civil service reformer and at one time United States Senator from Missouri, is dying at his residence in this city. Although he rallied slightly last night, his attending physicians, it is said, have given up hope of his recovery.

At 2 o'clock this morning a bulletin from the bedside announced that Mr. Schurz was a little better and that immediate death was not expected. He is suffering from a complication of ailments.

Until a week ago, when he was taken seriously ill, Mr. Schurz, in spite of his 77 years, was hale and active, keenly engrossed in intellectual affairs. He took great interest in the mayoralty election last November, indorsing the candidacy of William M. Ivins.

Mr. Schurz narrowly escaped serious injury last November when on his way to the Century Club, in Forty-second street. As he was about to alight from a Madison avenue car it started suddenly and Mr. Schurz was thrown to the pavement. He fell backward, but the rim of his hat protected his head. His injuries were not regarded as serious then.

Mr. Schurz has written his biography, "Reminiscences of a Long Life," which is being published in a magazine. He was one of the founders and one of the most forceful personalities in the Civil Service Reform Association. His illness prevented him from presiding at the association's annual dinner at the Hotel Astor Wednesday night. He was elected president.

Mr. Schurz was born near Cologne, in Prussia, in 1829. His career has been a varied one. He has been student, revolutionist, exile, war correspondent, tutor, orator, American politician, presidential nominator, editor, Minister to Spain, United States Senator, Brigadier-General of Volunteers in the Civil War, peace correspondent at Washington, lawyer and one of the organizers of the Mugwump party.

In 1868 he was an editor in St. Louis and was temporary chairman of the national convention that nominated Grant, for whose election he worked indefatigably. In the same year he was sent to the United States Senate from Missouri. There he "kicked over the traces," opposing many policies of President Grant, who keenly resented what he appeared to consider treachery from a former friend.

MOTHER HURLS BABY; LEAPS TO ESCAPE FLAMES

Mrs. Bessie Sanders and Three-Month-Old Child Seriously Injured.

THEIR HOME BURNED

Both Were Asleep When Fire Started on the Floor Below Them.

Mrs. Bessie Sanders, the pretty young wife of Jeff J. Sanders, and her 3-months-old baby, were taken to a private hospital Friday morning, both suffering from severe injuries inflicted during a fire which destroyed the Sanders home at 6236 Chatham avenue late Thursday night.

The mother, who has regained consciousness and calls faintly for her baby, is suffering from an injury to her back and her neck. Her left arm is also fractured. The baby's skull was fractured and its body bruised.

The injuries to Mrs. Sanders and her child resulted from her desperate efforts to save her own life and that of her baby, after escape from the house by the ordinary ways was cut off. The mother threw her child from the window of the second-story bedroom, where the flames had imprisoned the two and then jumped to the ground, 18 feet below. They were picked up by neighbors who had gathered to try to extinguish the fire and were carried to the home of Mrs. Myers, 6225 Chatham avenue, where physicians attended them.

The house where the Sanders family lived was a two-story structure. The lower floor was occupied by a store owned by Sanders and John J. Morrison. The second floor consisted of a double flat occupied by the families of Sanders and Morrison. There were three rooms in each flat and they could be entered only by a stairway from the rear, which opened into a small hall. Both families used this stairway.

Smoke Seeped Through Floor.

The fire was discovered about 10 p. m., after Mrs. Sanders and her child had retired. The husband, who is an employe of the United Railways Co., was away at work. Morrison and his wife were in their kitchen when Mrs. Morrison discovered smoke coming through the floor in one corner of the room.

The entire lower floor of the building was in flames at that time. Morrison awakened his 5-year-old daughter and sent her with her mother to the yard by the back stairs. He then knocked on the door of Mrs. Sanders' bedroom, but was unable to awaken her. Thinking she might have gone, he went to the yard, where he was met by his wife, who told him to "go back and get Bessie." He returned and finally succeeded in breaking down the kitchen door.

The flames were getting close and he went back to the yard. He heard his wife calling to Mrs. Sanders to jump and that she would catch her. Smashing the glass from the windows with her bare hands, the mother threw her child out, crying to Mrs. Morrison to catch it. She then raised the window and jumped.

Pistol Shots Give Alarm.

The child fell on its head and Mrs. Sanders on her face and left shoulder. Both were unconscious when picked up, though the mother soon recovered sufficiently to call for her child.

The Sanders home was beyond reach of the water mains and the fire was fought by neighbors, who formed a bucket brigade. The alarm was given by pistol shots. The fire spread to the home of George Shanks at 6230 Chatham avenue, and the bucket brigade fought hard to save it. The distance they had to carry the water was too great, however, and the building was burned. Most of the furniture was saved.

The building occupied by the Sanders and Morrison families was destroyed, together with the furniture. The loss is estimated at $3000. Shanks' loss is about $800.

Sanders was notified of the fire and arrived home about midnight. None of his property loss was covered by insurance.

For that tired feeling refresh yourself with a Belcher bath. Fourth and Lucas.

Driver's Fine Remitted.

With a warning that a second offense would bring severe punishment, Judge Tracy Friday remitted a fine of $10, imposed against Edward Meyers in the City Hall Police Court for scattering dirt from his wagon at Eighth and Olive streets. Meyers, who lives at 1710 Chestnut street, said he was not aware that the dirt was dropping from his wagon.

EX-PRIEST'S WIFE DIES OF BROKEN HEART

Prostrated After Husband's Removal Because of Alleged Drunkenness.

HE LEFT CHURCH TO WED

Frederick Rheindorff Became Evangelical Pastor After His Marriage.

Mrs. Bertha Augusta Rheindorff, wife of a former Catholic priest, who abandoned the church to marry her, is dead at St. Joseph's Hospital, Highland, Ill., from nervous prostration, following her husband's removal from the pastorate of the German Evangelical Church at Hookdale, Ill., because of alleged drunkenness.

Opium poisoning was indicated to Dr. D. M. Tibbetts of the hospital staff by certain symptoms which he observed before Mrs. Rheindorff's death. Deputy Coroner Koch of Madison County, who was summoned after Dr. Tibbetts' refusal to issue a burial certificate, rendered a verdict of death from nervous prostration.

Found Pastor Unconscious.

Two witnesses, one a member of the German Evangelical Church at Hookdale, testified before Deputy Coroner Koch that they found the pastor, Rev. Frederick H. Rheindorff, unconscious on the floor of the school room adjoining the church March 22.

Pastor Rheindorff, who was also teacher in the parochial school, had been irregular in his attendance at the school for several days before, according to the testimony of H. Mansholt, a member of the church, and he and H. H. Paul went to the schoolroom to investigate. He said they found the pastor lying on the floor, apparently intoxicated, and took him home.

This occurrence, Mansholt said, came as a climax to numerous complaints of the pastor's habits. He had been accustomed, the witness said, to get cider from rural parishioners and drink it to excess, and when the supply of this had given out he had kegs of beer sent to the parsonage and had drunk beer in such quantities as to incapacitate him for his work in church and school.

After the incident of March 22, Mansholt testified, he reported the pastor's acts to the congregation, already rent by the scandal of his recent conduct, and it was decided to call other pastors of the synod. Two came, and after they had heard the statements of several parishioners and the pastor, they decided that Rheindorff should be removed from the pastorate and dispossessed of the parsonage.

Physician Was Sent For.

The pastor was given until May 1 to leave the parsonage, but asked for and was given an extension of this time on his report that his wife was sick. Mansholt said he and others visited the parsonage and learned that no physician had been attending Mrs. Rheindorff. They sent for Dr. See of Pleasant Mound.

Paul's testimony was largely in corroboration of the evidence given by Mansholt who preceded him.

Mrs. Rheindorff was sent to the hospital last Monday and died there Wednesday. Dr. See testified that he believed her death was due to nervous prostration, and on this statement the verdict was based.

Rheindorff, seemingly under a great strain, testified at the inquest, to which he was accompanied by his son, 7 years old.

"It was the meanness of our enemies that killed her," he declared. "She cursed them while she lay sick, but she forgave them before she died.

"They would put tick-tacks on the house and fire off guns in front. They did this the night of March 12, and she became sick. The next night they did it again, and she said 'Oh, this will be the death of me!'"

Mansholt, in a supplementary statment to the Coroner, said that it was true that boys had put tick-tacks on the minister's house and had disturbed the household in other ways. This happened, he said, after the pastor's habits became a matter of scandal in the community.

Rheindorff, who is a native of Germany, entered the ministry of the German Evangelical Church after leaving the Catholic priesthood to marry. He was assigned to Hookdale, which is a small town in Bond County, 60 miles east of St. Louis.

Blames His Parishioners.

When seen by a Post-Dispatch reporter after the funeral of his wife at the little Highland cemetery Friday, Rheindorff relaterated, between the tears that were unrestrained, that his enemies in Hookdale had caused the illness that took his wife from him.

"We were happy and everything was going well until those human devils became angry at my preaching against their faults and rose up in a body to smite me."

Rheindorff would not go into the subject of his flock's faults.

"On one occasion," he said, "Paul became incensed because my wife refused to take some meat from him which she did not like.

"The people began to complain of everything she or I did. If I took on occasional glass of eer I was accused of being a drunkard. When my brother sent me a case of wine the people of Hookdale opened the case and drank the wine.

"They knew that my wife was verging on a nervous breakdown, ut continued to haunt our home, screaming and bellowing like savages, shooting and otherwise making our lives miserable. The collapse of my wife was a natural sequence after all she had gone through."

Immediately after the funeral Rheindorff and his 7-year-old son left Highland for Hookdale. The bereaved husband said that he would tarry there only long enough to collect some of his belongings and some of his wife's keepsakes. He said he didn't know where he would go from Hookdale.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. Father Stick, all the service being according to the Roman Catholic ceremony.

MAN ROBBED AND DRUGGED DIES IN JAIL

John Hickey of Chesterfield, Ill., Picked Up in Alley Unconscious.

SHOWED $500 TO FRIEND

He Said He Was on the Way to Oklahoma to Purchase a Farm.

John Hickey of Chesterfield, Ill., traveling overland to settle in Davenport, O. T., was drugged and robbed of $500 in Madison, and died there a few hours later. His bay team and his covered wagon, taken by the robbers, are being sought through Madison and St. Clair counties. An inquest into Hickey's death will be held at Granite City Friday night. He was 62 years old.

Hickey had $500 in his pockets when he arrived in Madison Wednesday, according to D. Z. Dedrick, a friend, to whom he exhibited his roll of bills. When he was found dying in the rear of the King George saloon Thursday, only 1 cent was in his pocket.

Shortly before he died Thursday he called for Dedrick, and told him, Dedrick says, that he had been drugged and robbed.

"I wish I had taken your advice and put my money in a bank," Dedrick says Hickey said to him. "They've given me some bad stuff and done me up."

Hickey's wife, Mrs. Bridget Hickey, and their son William, aged 18, have been at the home of Mrs. Mary Williams, 1022 North Eighth street, East St. Louis, since the family left the home at Chesterfield. A daughter, Maggie, aged 25, lives in Madison.

His rough costume and the appearance of his wagon and team attracted considerable attention in Madison Soon after arriving in town he went to Walters' saloon on State street, where his friend Dedrick is bartender. He showed Dedrick his money, which Dedrick advised him to put in a bank.

He told Derick the latter says that he did not believe anyone would suspect he had money and that he dressed roughly to prevent such a suspicion.

Late that night Jones Bates a mail carrier, found Hickey lying unconscious behind the King George saloon. He called two policemen, who carried the man to the City Hall Building. There he died early Thursday.

Dr. Hann, who attended Hickey, said that drugs or excessive drinking had caused his death.

The police were unable to find any trace of Hickey's team and wagon.

A. Jerbic, bartender at the King George saloon, said to a Post-Dispatch reporter Friday that Hickey appeared at his saloon late in the afternoon, drank two glasses of beer and started away without paying for them.

"Then he got sick at the door," said Jerbic. "I called John Cowen, the negro policemen who patrols the district near here, and asked him to arrest the man. He wouldn't arrest him, and pretty soon the man got up and went away. I didn't see him again."

Coroner Streeper was summoned to Granite City Friday by Deputy Coroner Voorhes of Granite City.

Hickey is said to have told some persons with whom he talked that he had "a notion" to sell his outfit and continue his journey Southwest by rail. The police do not believe he disposed of his rig.

Nail Taken From Foot.

While playing baseball Sunday morning Edward Gehn, 25 years old, of 8101 Pennsylvania avenue, stepped on a rusty nail, which entered his right foot near the instep and broke off. Gehn played on in spite of the pain. The nail was removed Friday at the South Side Dispensary by Dr. Parker. Blood poison had set in and the case is believed to be serious.

Are You Fit

To be Trusted with a Good Set of BRAINS?

GRAPE-NUTS

Keep them in Order.

A BRAIN FOOD AND REPAIRER

Every minister, lawyer, journalist, physician, author or business man is forced under pressure of modern conditions to the active and sometimes over-active use of the brain.

Analysis of the excreta thrown out by the pores shows that brain work breaks down the phosphate of potash, separating it from its heavier companion, albumen, and plain common sense teaches that this elemental principle must be introduced into the body anew each day, if we would replace the loss and rebuild the brain tissue.

We know that the phosphate of potash, as presented in certain field grains, has an affinity for albumen and that is the only way gray matter in the brain can be built. It will not answer to take the crude phosphate of potash of the drug shop, for nature rejects it. The elemental mineral must be presented through food directly from Nature's laboratory.

These facts have been made use of in the manufacture of Grape-Nuts, and any brain worker can prove the value of the proper selection of food by making free use of Grape-Nuts for ten days or two weeks. Sold by grocers everywhere (and in immense quantities). Manufactured by the Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

FULL PUBLICITY THE ONLY PURPOSE

Witnesses Tell of Post-Dispatch Aim in Salmon Bank Articles.

DEPOSITIONS ARE TAKEN

Suit Was Brought by Former Secretary of State Sam Cook.

Additional depositions in the $100,000 damage suit of former Secretary of State Sam B. Cook against the Post-Dispatch, growing out of articles published concerning the disastrous failure of the Salmon & Salmon Bank of Clinton, Mo., were taken Saturday before Special Notary Joseph Lewis in the Commonwealth Trust Building.

Attorney Edwin Silver of Jefferson City represented Mr. Cook and F. N. Judson acted for the Post-Dispatch.

A. G. Lincoln, circulation manager of the Post-Dispatch, was the first witness examined. He testified that at the time of the failure of the Salmon Bank, which resulted in a loss to depositors of $700,000, in June, 1905, the circulation of the daily Post-Dispatch exceeded 150,000 copies, while the circulation of the Sunday issue was more than 250,000.

On cross-examination by Mr. Judson, Mr. Lincoln said he was not acquainted with Mr. Cook, and knew of no one connected with the Post-Dispatch who had hostile feeling towards the plaintiff.

Purpose Only Publicity.

W. C. Steigers, business manager of the Post-Dispatch, testified along the same line. The articles on the Salmon bank failure, Mr. Steigers said, were prompted by the policy of the Post-Dispatch to give the fullest publicity to the news, and also with a view of correcting evils that might be shown to exist in the official supervision of State banks.

Frank R. O'Neil, vice-president of the Pulitzer Publishing Co., testified that he had known Mr. Cook a long time. Their relations were pleasant, Mr. O'Neil said, in so far as his acquaintance with Mr. Cook extended, and neither he nor other employes of the paper were actuated by malice in publishing accounts of the consequences of the Salmon bank failure. The single purpose of the Post-Dispatch, Mr. O'Neil testified, was to publish complete and authentic information concerning that matter, and thus to enlighten not merely the hundreds who had lost their savings in the bank, but the public generally as to the actual conditions existing at Clinton.

Mr. O'Neil said that his attention had been drawn to the relations between Mr. Cook and the old Democratic State machine in Missouri by the disclosures resulting from the celebrated Cardwell case.

What Officials Said.

Mr. O'Neil was followed by J. J. McAuliffe, a reporter for the Post-Dispatch, who was sent to Clinton shortly after the Salmon bank closed its doors.

Mr. McAuliffe said that from interviews with officials, from the Secretary of State's office, from depositors and others familiar with the affairs of the Salmon bank, he learned that the bank had been insolvent since 1896.

His acquaintance with Mr. Cook extended over a period of five years. Mr. Cook and Harvey W. Salmon, who, with his brother, Dr. G. Y. Salmon, owned the Salmon bank, were intimate companions, closely associated in political and social affairs, Mr. McAuliffe testified.

In response to a question from Mr. Judson, Mr. McAuliffe said that politicians generally regarded Mr. Cook, Maj. Salmon, Senator Stone and former Excise Commissioner Seibert as the dominant factors in the Democracy of Missouri prior to the advent of the Folk administration.

He knew of no personal prejudice on the part of the Post-Dispatch against the former Secretary of State.

The hearing was adjourned indefinitely at noon.

WIFE FOOLED HIM IN BLACK DOMINO

were sitting on chairs facing each other and she had her foot on his lap and he was bandaging her ankle.

"She was wearing a kimono. He was acting as her physician. I asked her if I hadn't offered to send for a doctor and she struck me. I left the house and went to the home of my lawyer. From there I telephoned to my home threatening to send a patrol wagon there if Robert didn't leave, and they told me if I had a patrol wagon sent there they would have me arrested."

Gelbart said his wife had a very violent temper and at times she would strike him in the face. On such occasions, to avoid striking back, he usually went out and walked around for an hour or so.

He said letters fell into his hands after his wife returned from a visit to St. Joseph, Mo., which indicated that she had fallen in love with her cousin there. He explained that when he separated from his wife he gave notice for his mail to be forwarded to his office, and some of the letters from the cousin intended for Mrs. Gelbart reached him. He said they were very affectionate letters.

"He still owes me an explanation," said Gelbart. He had given the letters to his wife, he said, and she had destroyed them.

Gelbart's sister testified that Mrs. Gelbart had shown her one letter from the Kansas City cousin in which he addressed Mrs. Gelbart as "My Dear, Sweet Darling," and had told her he loved her so much he could not live without her, and that they would get married after she got a divorce from Gelbart.

Mrs. Gelbart also told her, she said, that a young man in the Austrian section at the World's Fair wanted to kiss her, but told her he wouldn't because he would get red lips if he did.

George Lloyd, chief usher at the Odeon, told of having seen Robert flirt across the footlights with Mrs. Gelbart when she was sitting with Mr. Gelbart and of him having taken her to concerts there, and of Mrs. Gelbart having waited for him one night after the show.

Mr. Gelbart said his wife was very fond of poker and he sometimes went with her under protest to poker parties, but never played himself.

In explanation of his failure to do anything to the actor, he said Robert was a pretty good athlete and he never was a fighter. Once, two weeks after their separation, when Mrs. Gelbart and Robert made fun of him after the second act at a performance of the German Theater Company, a friend of his wanted to loan him a revolver with which to shoot the actor, but he declined it.

The couple were married March 3, 1903, and separated Feb. 17, 1906.

A number of German actors and actresses were interested listeners at the trial.

TAKES POISON AS HUSBAND WATCHES

Woman Suffered 40 Minutes Before Aid Came—Died at Hospital.

HUSBAND WAS ARRESTED

He Seemed to Be Dazed When Taken From a Rooming House.

A young woman, who was known as Mrs. S. E. Mundy, but who preferred to be called Miss Susie Schmidt, suffered for 40 minutes from carbolic acid poisoning at the rooming house at 2831 Lawton avenue before medical aid was summoned, according to a statement made to the Post-Dispatch by Dr. H. W. Knapp of 2903 Lawton avenue Friday.

She died at the City Hospital Thursday night two hours after she took the poison in the presence of S. B. Mundy, known as her husband.

Dr. Knapp says that when he went to the room occupied by the Mundys there was a strange young man there. The husband also was present, but he seemed to be dazed or in some way incapacitated.

Husband Asked Help.

Miss Halpin, daughter of the keeper of the house, says that this young man was not present when the young woman took the poison, but that he was visiting one of the boarders and went to the room when Mundy called for help.

The couple had been at the house only three weeks. In that time there had been frequent quarrels, the woman accusing Mundy of drinking to excess.

The woman received much mail from Jefferson City and they were always addressed to Susie Schmidt. Mundy, however, always called her "Lillie."

When the police were notified that the woman had taken poison, they arrested Mundy and held him at the Manchester Avenue Station for two hours. The official report says that he was under the influence of liquor.

Since his release he has not returned to the rooming house or to his place of employment with a wall paper cleaning company at 4430 Easton avenue.

The woman worked in a shoe factory on Locust street. She often complained that it was necessary for her to earn money to help support herself and Mundy.

She told her acquaintances that she had relatives in Jefferson City and that she left there with Mundy two years ago.

WENT ON CRUTCHES

UNTIL DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS CURED HIS RHEUMATISM.

A Printer Tells of the Accidental Way in Which He Learned of the Remedy That He Praises.

"Some years ago," says Mr. W. H. Clark, a printer, living at 612 Buchanan street, Topeka, Kans., "I had a bad attack of rheumatism and could not seem to get over it. All sorts of medicines failed to do me any good and my trouble kept getting worse. My feet were so swollen that I could not wear shoes and I had to go on crutches. The pain was terrible.

"One day I was setting the type of an article for the paper telling what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills had done for a man afflicted as I was and I was so impressed with it that I determined to give the medicine a trial. For a year my rheumatism had been growing worse, but after taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills I began to improve. The pain and swelling all disappeared and I can truthfully say that I haven't felt better in the past twenty years than I do right now. I could name, off hand, a half-dozen people who have used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills at my suggestion and who have received good results from them."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are guaranteed to be safe and harmless to the most delicate constitution. They contain no morphine, opiate, narcotic, nor anything to cause a drug habit. They do not act on the bowels but they actually make new blood and strengthen the nerves. If you want good health you must have good blood.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure rheumatism because they make rich, red blood and no man or woman can have healthy blood and rheumatism at the same time. Rheumatism is a disease of the blood and to cure it you must treat it in the blood. Every part and every tissue of the body is dependent on the blood for health. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make new blood. That is why they have cured so many cases of anaemia, neuralgia, sciatica, partial paralysis, locomotor ataxia and other diseases that have not yielded to ordinary treatment.

All druggists sell Dr. Williams' Pink Pills or they will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box, six boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y.

ZULUS RISE UP AGAINST BRITISH

DURBAN, Natal, May 11.—Thousands of Zulus from Chief Kula's kraal are reported to be on their way to join the rebel Chief, Bambaata, and colonial troops are being hurried forward to prevent their junction.

Chief Kula, who is suspected of disaffection and was recently arrested, was placed in Jail at Pietermaritzburg this morning. It is presumed that it was the arrest of this chief which led to the rising of his followers.

Natives captured by the colonial forces report that witch doctors are sacrificing children in order to render the rebels immune from British bullets. Before a battle they kill a girl and concoct "medicine" from her body, with which the witch doctors anoint the warriors under the pretense that it renders them invulnerable to white men's arms.

BARTENDER IS WOUNDED.

Frank Kracvkowski, a bartender at 1700 North Ninth street, is at the City Hospital suffering from two knife wounds in the abdomen, one of which may prove fatal. Patrick J. Flynn of 3104 North Eleventh street and his brother, John F. Flynn of 1427 Dodier street, are held by the police charged with the stabbing.

The trouble occurred Thursday night at the Ninth street saloon and originated over a demand made by the bartender for 5 cents, the price of some beer the brothers bought. They are said to have refused to pay and a fight followed. Patrick Flynn is alleged to have held Kracvkowski while his brother stabbed him with a pocketknife.

THREAT TO KILL IS RECITED IN SUIT FOR NOTE

Judgment for Levy in Suit Against Burg, Divorce Case Participant.

FATHER'S RAGE RELATED

"I'll Kill You if I Hang," Policeman Is Quoted as Saying.

In the suit of S. M. Levy against Adolph Burg of 4434 St. Louis avenue, to recover $250 on promissory notes, tried in Justice Spaulding's court Friday, there were exciting developments bearing upon a recent divorce case.

The evidence showed that Burg was a musician at the Jal Alai skating rink, and that there he met Mrs. Dr. Caruthers, whose husband obtained a divorce some time ago, naming Burg in his suit. The principal evidence in the case consisted of letters written by Burg to Mrs. Caruthers, a daughter of Police Sergeant Finley, who recently left the city.

Levy, who is said to have a brother who is proprietor of a saloon on the Easton and Whittier street beat formerly walked by Policeman Finley, testified Friday that he had loaned Finley $425, that Finley had given him the note signed by Burg, and that he had then credited Finley with $225. He did not know the conditions on which the notes had been obtained from Burg. The Burg notes, he said, had been turned over to Lawyer Chester H. Kern.

Burg, who has been married five years and has one child, testified that shortly before the Caruthers divorce suit was filed, Mrs. Caruthers and her mother, Mrs. Finley, called on him and told him that, if he did not deny writing the letters to Mrs. Caruthers, his life would not be worth a cent. After the divorce was obtained by Dr. Caruthers, witness said, he received a letter from Finley asking an appointment, and they met in the office of Lawyer Kern in the Third National Bank Building.

Threat to Kill Quoted.

At that meeting, Burg said, Finley told him that if he, Finley, had known that Burg intended to admit the authorship of the letters, Dr. Caruthers' suit for divorce would never have been contested, and that the costs of that suit amounted to $250. Then, Burg testified, Finley said to him:

"You owe me your life, anyhow. You ought to cough up. If it was not for your wife and baby, I would blow your brains out."

Burg said he admitted that he felt he ought to pay something towards defraying the costs of the divorce suit, but he objected to paying $250. At this, he said, Finley threw his hand back to his hip pocket, where Burg saw a pistol, saying:

"I'll shoot daylight through you if I hang for it!"

At this, Burg said, he became frightened and signed the notes. Now, he said, he did not feel that he was obliged to pay them, as he had told the truth in his testimony in the Carruthers divorce suit.

Lawyer Kern testified that Burg and Finley had met in his office, but said that he had heard nothing of their conversation, as they were in an adjoining room. He was called in to receive the notes, which were turned over to him, he said, to keep the transaction between Burg and Finley from being known.

There were 12 notes for $20 each and one note for $10, made payable monthly. Kern said he had received a written order to turn the notes over to some other person, probably Levy, but had forgotten the name of this person. He was not able to produce the written order.

A verdict for $225, in favor of Levy, was rendered.

COSTLY ROOTING FOR CARDINALS

When the Cardinals made their first run in the fourth inning of their game with the Chicago Cubs at League Park Thursday, Chicago then having 5 runs to her credit, Gunn R. Wilson justified his Christian name by an explosion. It was an explosion of cheers, for Gunn R. is a rooter for the home team, being a St. Louisan residing at 2833 Lucas avenue, a railroad switchman by occupation, and a "fan" for choice.

The Cardinals were going to be defeated by a score of 8 to 5, but Gunn R. didn't know it then, and he got up from his seat in the seventh row of the bleachers' stand and yelled for St. Louis.

"That's the stuff, boys!" he yelled. "Kill 'em! Eat 'em up alive! Wipe 'em off the map! Hooray!"

Three rows behind Gunn R. Wilson of St. Louis sat a Chicago rooter, name unknown, who waxed wroth at Gunn R.'s rooting for the Cardinals.

"Shut up, you!" shouted the Chicago rooter. "Sit down! You're hollerin' for dead ones! 23! Skidoo!"

Watchman on the Scene.

Just at that moment Park Watchman Sam Fensky appeared on the scene, and seeing only Gunn R. Wilson in a belligerent attitude, the Chicago rooter having subsided, he took the St. Louisan in charge and escorted him out of the park. On its farther confines, standing as "one morn a Peri at the gate of Eden stood, disconsolate," Gunn R. Wilson was arrested by Policeman Teiser and Friday morning he was fined $5 in the Dayton Street Police Court by Justice O'Hallaron on a charge of disturbing the peace of Park Watchman Fensky.

"Your Honor," said Gunn R., "I was rootin' for St. Louis, like a good St. Louisan ought to do!"

"You disturbed the peace," replied His Honor.

"A Chicago rooter disturbed it first by hittin' me on the head with a plank," explained Gunn R.

"The charge is preferred against you alone," answered the Court. But then Justice O'Hallaron looked at Gunn R.'s loyal St. Louis face and relented.

"I'll stay the fine on payment of $3 costs," he announced. "But you must promise not to root so vigorously for St. Louis again."

And Gunn R. Wilson promised, dubiously.

VACATION IN SUBURBS FOR WOMEN WORKERS

Those Who Cannot Afford to Go Far Into Country Will Be Taken This Summer Into Homes of Kirkwood, Benton and Other Towns.

Women of Kirkwood, Benton, Carondelet, Greenwood and Webster Groves are at work upon a plan which will insure vacations in the suburbs for women and girls who cannot afford or do not care to go far away from St. Louis.

They have arranged for rooms in the old Anderson homestead at Benton, which has been leased by Mrs. L. C. West, and place for 100 others has been promised in the homes of Benton.

There are tennis and croquet grounds on the large lawn of the Anderson home, which will be free for the use. The charge for board will be $2.50.

The members of the committee in charge are Mrs. Belle R. Kimball of Kirkwood, Mrs. Field of Benton, Mrs. Lloyd of Carondelet and Mrs. McCarthy of Greenwood. They are to be given the money realized from the sale of tickets for the concert at the Odeon May 31 for the benefit of the Gospel Rest Room League. The funds will be used to fit up the rooms and grounds.

Rooms for League Members.

Mrs. West, the president of the league, has charge of the old Anderson home, Bruno and McCausland avenues, which is reached by way of the Maplewood and Meramec Highlands cars. She intends giving a number of its rooms for the use of members of the league from 6:30 to 10 p. m., on week days and from 2 to 10 p. m., on Saturdays and Sundays.

These rooms will be opened Saturday afternoon with a house-warming. Musical numbers will be given and Miss Lucille Gappan will recite.

The women who are in charge of the vacation plan undertook it when it was found that of 155 young women at the meal tables of the rest room a few days ago, but 11 of them had spent their last vacation in the country. Railroad fare and lack of knowledge of a place to go were the drawbacks.

ONE IN THREE FIT TO BE POLICEMAN

Ninety Applicants Out of 265 Pass Physical Examinations All Right.

High heels and padded shoulders are not considered by the Board of Police Commissioners to be quite the correct thing in the make-up of a would-be policeman. Fully a hundred applicants for jobs on the force were rejected Thursday afternoon after their coats and shoes had been closely inspected. Several came within an eighth of an inch of qualifying for the height of 5 feet 9 inches.

The assembly room of the Newstead Avenue Police Station, where the applicants were examined, resembled an army recruiting station in time of war. Over 250 men were lined up for inspection and those who expected to squeeze through by the skin of their teeth were sorely disappointed. They were one and all subjected to the closest scrutiny. They were sized up from all points of the compass. The commissioners would call one of the applicants out of line and, surrounding him, would "go over" him as horse traders "size up" a horse.

"He's got a good eye," one of the commissioners would say of a favorable looking candidate.

"Just look at those shoulders," another would say.

"He'll do for me."

"He's built like an ox."

Comments Were Personal.

An undersized candidate would hear the commissioners say things like this about him:

"You won't do; you're too light."

"You can't stand the night work and bad weather."

"I'm afraid he can't stand the gaff."

"We'll have to pass him up."

Among the applicants were a college student and a High School graduate. The High School graduate was appointed while the college boy was rejected. William B. Ryan, the High School graduate, scored a hit with the board.

"You're too good to be a policeman," said Commissioner Maroney. "I'd like to keep you off the force for your own good."

"He's the brightest of the whole bunch," declared Mr. Stewart.

"That boy comes of fine stock. I know his father," said Maroney.

The college student, William Bowen, passed the examination all right, but he was too far down in the line to be appointed at this time.

Of the 265 applicants, 90 were found to be physically eligible. In measuring the men an inch was allowed for their shoes. Those with high heels and thick soles, however, were measured accurately.

Had Drilled All Right.

Mr. Maroney caused a laugh by asking one of the applicants, Myles O'Sullivan, if he was Irish. The answer was in the affirmative.

"That's funny," said Maroney. "I never heard of an Irishman wanting to be a policeman."

"Did you ever do any drilling?" asked one of the commissioners of an applicant who had a distinctly military bearing.

"Yeth, thir," was the reply.

"Where?"

"In my brother's quarry."

He was appointed.

"How far is it from New York to San Francisco?" asked Mr. Stewart, in an effort to test one of the applicants' knowledge of geography.

"I don't know, sir," replied the applicant, "and if that's the best you're going to give me I don't want the job."

Of the 90 who were found physically eligible 20 were disqualified on account of poor penmanship. Out of the remaining 70 applicants 28 were appointed conditionally. That is, they must pass the medical and mental examinations which are to come later.

The following applicants were selected in the order in which they are named: P. J. Lynch, Charles Gerlock, Hugh C. Hayes, Edward J. Fitzgerald, Sam Green, W. H. Meyers, Patrick Fitzgerald, James G. Reynolds, Bruno A. Fritsch, John Bohachek, William H. Scholl, Julius Lestman, Benjamin Feldwert, Joseph F. Maher, Dennis Fogarty, Luke L. Anthony, E. D. Ewing, Henry Donnelly, George W. Burke, Myles O'Sullivan, Fred Yoas, John P. Meinz, William B. Ryan, E. B. Graves, W. L. Henry, T. F. O'Fallon, Bert Killian and R. J. Broadus. The first 22 were emergency specials during the Fair. The other six have never done police duty.

Fined for Driving Lame Horse.

Louis Wilson, who drives a team for Michael J. Sullivan, a contracting builder, was fined $20 in the City Hall Police Court Friday on a charge of driving a lame horse.

How Japs Keep Strong

Post-Dispatch Readers Can Learn Something of Value From This.

Such a thing as a weakling is hardly known in Japan. The wonderful endurance of the Japanese soldiers and sailors in the recent war has been the marvel of all nations. Both men and women are well, happy and strong.

The reason for this, so careful investigators tell us, is that the Japanese from childhood up know how to keep well through care of the digestive system. If they have trouble with indigestion, heartburn, wind on the stomach, loss of appetite, sleeplessness, headaches, rheumatic pains, backaches, or any of the other troubles caused by a weak stomach, they treat themselves with some of the principal remedies that compose Mi-o-na, a stomach remedy that has already a large sale in St. Louis. Price 50c.

If you cannot obtain Mi-o-na of your druggist, it will be sent by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price. Sample sufficient to show its value will be forwarded on request. The R. T. Booth Co., Ithaca, N. Y.

UP TO PEOPLE TO SAVE COLISEUM

Dismantling Will Begin at Once If City Authorities Demand It.

NO PROFIT IN RENTAL

Charge Not Made for Use of Music Hall for Religious Services.

While financial arrangements are being made to remove the Coliseum to Grand avenue and Rutger street, the present location of the headquarters of Battery A, St. Louis' historic Exposition Building at Thirteenth and Olive streets, which, under the city ordinances, must be torn down to make room for the new public library, is being devoted to a variety of purposes, none of which, according to citizens who have investigated the matter, is authorized by the municipal authorities.

A religious revival is being conducted in one nave of the building. A skating rink is another attraction. Recently the dog show and the convention of the Missouri State League of Republican Clubs held forth there. The exterior of the building is almost hidden by theatrical posters and other advertisements.

With the Coliseum torn down, Locust street will be cut through to Fourteenth street, thus making this one of the most important thoroughfares in the business district.

John D. Filley, vice-president of the St. Louis Union Trust Co., which has charge of the Exposition Building property, said the work of dismantling the Exposition Building would be begun immediately if the city authorities demanded it, and there is no prospect of preserving the vast Coliseum Building.

Individuals Not Benefited.

"Neither the St. Louis Trust Co. nor any individual is benefiting from the small income derived from the rental of the Expositon Building at this time," said Mr. Filley to a Post-Dispatch reporter Friday. "In fact, the rental has been barely sufficient to provide for the care of the building.

"The Exposition Building was turned over gratis to the horse and dog show managements and no charge is being made for the use of it now for religious purposes.

"It is true a small sum is being received for the advertisement posted outside, and the skating rink is required to pay. But no one is making any money out of it.

"Sometime ago, readers of the Post-Dispatch will recall, public-spirited citizens, desirous of saving the Coliseum in order that St. Louis might still have a commodious hall for convention purposes, get together and decided to raise a fund with this end in view. Mr. A. W. Shapleigh was appointed chairman of the citizens' committee.

"The St. Louis Trust Co. was requested to defer tearing down the building until such time as this committee could get the necessary amount of money for the removal of the Coliseum together. There was no objection to this proposition and we gladly complied.

"Mr. Shapleigh has assured us from time to time the citizens will be successful in their project to move the Coliseum. Every one interested in new St. Louis, I believe, is willing that this committee should be given full opportunity to carry out its plans.

It Is Up to People.

"However, we are merely the servants of the city in this matter. If the Coliseum can't be removed, we are willing to tear it down now and allow the Public Library Board to take charge. It is up to the people to say what they want done. Meanwhile the revenue being derived from the rent of Exposition Music Hall is so insignificant that I cannot understand why it should be made the subject of complaint."

When Andrew Carnegie in 1902 agreed to give $1,000,000 for the erection of a great public library building in St. Louis, citizens at once met and devised a plan whereby they could get possession of the Exposition Music Hall Building.

The ground already belonged to the city, it being formerly used as a public park, the Exposition management merely acquiring it for the erection of a building for public xposition purposes under condition that it should revert to St. Louis when this enterprise ceased to exist.

The sum of $280,000 was raised to buy up the bonds of the Exposition Music Hall Association and to discharge the obligations the corporation had been unable to meet.

The Municipal Assembly thereupon enacted an ordinance donating the property to the city.

This ordinance, it was provided, should not take effect "until the oBard of Directors of the St. Louis Public Library should acquire, or cause to be acquired, for its use and benefit all of the rights, property and franchises of the St. Louis Exposition and Music Hall Association and shall have filed in the Register's office a written statement of Andrew Carnegie or his agents expressing his approval of the location of the public library on the Exposition site."

The records of the City Register's office show that the City Counselor certified that the requirements of this ordinance were met Aug. 21, 1905.

SCORES TAX DODGERS.

Club Woman Blames Evasive Rich for Crime.

"Coffee houses" and music are proposed by the Tenement Committee of the Eighth District, Missouri Federation of Women's Clubs, to remedy existing conditions in the tenement districts. A meeting to consider details of such a plan will be held May 16 at 3848 Pine street.

Mrs. William O. Beckley of 4173 Delmar boulevard, chairman of the Tenement Committee, created a sensation before a meeting of several hundred society women in Y. M. C. A. Hall, Thursday, when she made a bold attack on tax-dodgers, blaming them for poor conditions in city institutions and for the crime and squalor of tenement districts.

Several women left while Mrs. Beckley was speaking.

She urged that if wealthy people would only pay their just taxes, the increased revenue would be sufficient to provide betterment of conditions.

She urged better equipped mission houses, as they are at present, poorly lighted and dilapidated, to attract the poorer people, as opposed to the brilliancy of the saloons.

THEBES BRIDGE HAS ARBITRARY

Shippers of Southeast Missouri Apply to State Commissioners.

SAY RATES ARE TOO HIGH

Commission Will Probably Hold Hearing and Appeal to Federal Body.

Shippers of Southeastern Missouri have complained to the State Board of Railroad and Warehouse Commissioners of an arbitrary charge over the Thebes Bridge over the Mississippi, and the commissioners are preparing to make an investigation in conjunction with the Interstate Commerce Commission.

The shippers are represented by Attorney John A. Hope of Cape Girardeau, who has presented the complaint in a verbal form to the commission at Jefferson City, and will follow it in a few days with a written complaint. The commission has no record of charges made on freight over the bridge, though this will be gone into when the investigation is begun.

The greatest objection is to the rate on lumber, which is the principal shipment from Southeast Missouri. Attorney Hope has told members of the board that rates are very satisfactory until the car reaches the Thebes Bridge, where an excessive arbitrary charge is made, the same as in St. Louis over the Eads and Merchants' bridges.

It is reported to the board that the railroads and the bridge company have heard the complaint of the shippers and have made no movement toward a reduction in the charges.

Bridge Is Inter-State.

As the bridge is party in Missouri and party in Illinois, the question must come before the Interstate Commerce Commission. It is customary for such cases to go direct to that commission, but in this case the complainants have requested that the Missouri board investigate and report its findings to the Federal commission. The date of the hearing has not been set, but probably will be as soon as the formal written complaint is filed.

The Thebes bridge is owned by the railroads using it, though it is a separate corporation known as the Southern Illinois & Missouri Bridge Co.

The Railroad Commissioners will hold a hearing at some point close to the bridge, and will receive testimony as to the bridge arbitrary. The testimony will be forwarded to the Interstate Commerce Commission which may also hold a hearing or may determine the matter on the evidence submitted by the Missouri commissioners.

WALKS 3 MILES, DIES.

Belleville Man Went to Notify Son of Position.

The funeral of Nicholas Schmittling of 314 South Race street, Belleville, who died suddenly of heart disease at the home of his stepson, Conrad Bruch, east of Belleville, Thursday morning, will be held Saturday afternoon from St. Peter's Cathedral to Green Mount Cemetery.

Schmittling walked three miles Thursday morning to his stepson's home to notify his son, Charles Schmittling, that a position which the son formerly held was open to him again. He was stricken as soon as he reached the Bruch home and died before a physician could be summoned.

A verdict of death from natural causes was returned by Coroner Irwin. Schmittling had been suffering with asthma for some time, and it is the belief of the Coroner that the unusual exercise of the three-mile walk caused his heart to weaken.

Schmittling was born in Alsace-Lorraine and had lived in Belleville since he was 17 years old. He was twice married, and is survived by his second wife, 12 children and stepchildren, one sister and a brother.

New Belcher Bath and Hotel, Fourth and Lucas avenue. Open for business day and night.

WOMAN WANTED TO DIE.

Turned Gas On Twice in Jail After Arrest.

Two unsuccessful attempts to end her life, supposedly because she had been arrested for appearing on Belleville streets in an unbecoming condition, were made Thursday night by a woman who gave her name as Sidney Gardner and later as Elizabeth Peel of "Fourteenth and Olive streets, St. Louis. She gave her age as 32 and told the Belleville police that she was on her way to Collinsville to buy clothing for a niece who lived at that place.

The only explanation the woman gave after she had been twice foiled in her attempt to end her life by turning on the gas in the Belleville Police Station was that she was remorseful over her arrest. She took a car, supposedly for St. Louis, after several hours at the station.

CHANGE OF MANAGEMENT.

Chas. W. Brainerd Is Appointed Manager of St. Louis House of O. K. Houck Piano Co.

The many friends of Charles W. Brainerd will be pleased to learn that he has been appointed manager of the St. Louis house of O. K. Houck Piano Co., succeeding H. A. Phipps, who resigned May 1.

Mr. Brainerd is well known in the piano and musical circles of St. Louis, having lived here all his life. For the last two years he has had charge of the wholesale business of the Krell-French Piano Co., in the states west of the Mississippi River.

Stricken in Barber Chair.

George Ischer, member of Engine Company No. 15, at Broadway and Valentine street, is at the City Hospital recovering from an attack of partial paralysis. Ischer rose from a barber chair at Eleventh and Pine streets Thursday evening to find that his right arm and leg were useless. He was caught by customers and taken to the hospital. Ischer is 57 years old.

Persons desiring to make money working at home can easily earn $2 a day knitting hosiery for the United States Woolen Co., 70 State st., Detroit, Mich., who will send particulars free on application.

Invalid Saved in Fire.

Mrs. Joseph Schnellmann, who has been ill for some time, had to be carried from her home in Luxemburg, South St. Louis, when the house caught fire. The fire caught in a barn in the rear of the house, but soon spread to the dwelling, and neighbors, knowing Mrs. Schnellmann's condition, went immediately to her assistance. Both stable and house were destroyed.

THE HOUSEWIFE

Needs a Strong back

Housework—sweeping, scrubbing, washing,—use up a woman's strength. Her muscles tire; her nerves lack nourishment. One of the first organs to suffer is the kidneys. They begin to work overtime. Why? Because muscular waste is poison—and the kidneys are the only organs that can throw it out of the human body.

ZOELLER'S
BLACK-GIN
FOR THE KIDNEYS

If you have back aches, a yellow skin, headache, rheumatic pains, neuralgia in face or body, sleeplessness, your kidneys need immediate attention. Don't wait a day. Understand that you can't be strong enough to work—happy enough to enjoy life, if your blood is bad. Zoeller's Black-gin cleanses the blood by helping your kidneys throw out the waste that poisons blood. Ask your druggist today for Zoeller's Black-gin. A big bottle—always One Dollar.

PAPER TRUST IS FIRST TO YIELD TO GOVERNMENT

Surrenders to Attorney-General's Assault and Is Sentenced to Dissolution.

JUNE 16 IS DATE SET

Suit Filed December, 1904, and Opposed Vigorously Is Suddenly Victorious.

OPPOSITION WITHDRAWN

Paper Magnates, Who Refused to Testify, Volunteer Evidence in Court.

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 11.—The United States Government today secured an unconditional surrender in the United States Circuit Court before Judge Sanborn of the Paper Trust, against which the Attorney-General began a suit on Dec. 27, 1904, to dissolve a combination between the General Paper Co. and 23 other defendants on the ground that an agreement had been entered into by the defendants in restraint of interstate commerce.

Attorney Kellogg for the Government and Attorney Flanders for the defendants appeared before Judge Sanborn, sitting as a Circuit Judge, and Kellogg moved that the mandate from the United States Supreme Court, affirming the order that the witnesses must testify, be filed.

Jurge Sanborn ordered the mandate filed.

The witnesses then appeared before the United States examiner and offered to testify. The defendants then withdrew their answers. Kellogg announced that the Government did not care to examine the witnesses and moved for a decree in favor of the Government. Judge Sanborn ordered that the decree be entered for the Government for the relief prayed, and that the decree should be settled on June 16, and the proceedings were adjourned.

The three witnesses who refused to testify, namely, C. I. McNair of the Northwestern Paper Co., A. C. Bossard of the Itaska Paper Co., and B. F. Nelson of the Hennepin Paper Co., paid into court the $100 fine assessed against each for contempt of court for refusing to answer the questions put to them at a former hearing.

GIRL'S CONFESSION OF PERJURY VAIN

Pardons Refused by Gov. Folk to Twenty-Nine Inmates of Penitentiary.

The friends of 29 inmates of the Penitentiary have learned that pardons are not to be had from Gov. Folk for the asking. The Governor took up applications for pardons Thursday, and that number, including seven from St. Louis, were refused.

Among the St. Louisans who failed to secure pardons is John Knobel, sent to the Penitentiary in 1904 to serve a 10-year term for the killing of Matthew Langendorf. A sister of the prisoner, on whose testimony he was convicted, made affidavit that her testimony at the trial was false. This, however, did not convince the Governor of Knobel's innocence.

The other St. Louisans refused were: James E. Johnson, convicted of embezzlement and now out on parole; Walter St. Vrain, convicted of burglary in 1904 and sentenced for 10 years; Charles Tozier, convicted of attempted sodomy in 1904 and sentenced for three years; Patrick McNichols, convicted of burglary and larceny in 1905 and sentenced for five years; Charles Rector, convicted of burglary in 1905 and sentenced for three years; Herman Hensath, convicted of felonious assault in 1900 and sentenced for 10 years.

Another application denied was that of John F. Kennedy, convicted of train robbing and known as the "Quail Hunter," from the fact that he explained the carrying of two big pistols by saying that he was going on a quail hunt at the time of his capture.

PART OF BACKBONE GONE, MINER DIES

Pieces of Bone Were Removed to Relieve Belleville Man of Paralysis.

Louis Hartman, the miner from whose spinal column pieces of bone were removed a week ago, died Thursday night in St. Elizabeth's Hospital, Belleville. Death was due to shock following the accident and the operation.

Hartman was 23 years old and was injured by a fall of coal in the Nigger Hollow mine three weeks ago. After he was taken to the hospital his legs and the lower portion of his body were paralyzed. An operation showed that one of the sections of his backbne was shattered and portions of the bone pressed against the spinal cord.

An incision was made in the back and two portions of the bone were removed. The stopping of the pressure had an immediately beneficial effect on the paralysis, and the hope was expressed that the man would recover. He did improve for a few days and then came a relapse and death.

Hartman leaves a wife and two children. The funeral will be held Saturday.

OIL TRUST'S PIPES LAID BY THE SANTA FE

President Ripley of the Road Declared Railroad Got $40 and $50 a Mile.

INVESTIGATION GENERAL

Trust Attorney Miller Draws This Information From Commission.

CHICAGO, May 11.—The Interstate Commerce Commission at its investigation here will not confine itself to the relation between the Oil Trust and the railroads, but will make its inquiry general. This information resulted from an objection made by Attorney Miller of the Oil Trust.

"Then, as I understand it," said Miller, after Commissioner Clements had explained, "the commission takes the position that for the purpose of this inquiry its power is equal to that of the Bureau of Commerce, and that the commission will simply report the results of its investigation to Congress without attempting to exercise any of its remedial powers."

"That is the position of the commission, as I understand it," replied Commissioner Clements.

Pipe Lines on Railroad Ways.

E. P. Ripley, president of the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe, told yesterday how the Oil Trust got its pipe lines on the Santa Fe right of way.

"The first contract," said President Ripley, "was with a man in Kansas City, to lay a pipe line on our right of way for $40 a mile. The next was for lines from Kansas City to Joliet, and for this we received $50 per mile.

"We got $250,000 for hauling the pipe. I was very sorry to see the pipe line built, but as it had to be done I did the best I could out of it."

"Is there any contract between your road and the Standard, or any of the subsidiary companies, for furnishing the road with lubricating oil?" asked Commissioner Prouty.

"I understand so. Our purchasing agent can tell you better."

Ripley declared that two of the oil companies with which he made contracts are affiliated with the Standard Oil Co.

"Didn't you raise the rate in Kansas on oil when the pipe line was put in?" asked Attorney Monett.

"We did, but we carried oil before the pipe line was put in, and we have carried none since."

He was asked if the rate on gas oil was not lowered and that on crude oil raised, and he answered that it was.

"When the crude oil was piped the rate was raised, but the rate on gas oil was lowered, it being shipped; isn't that so?"

"Yes," replied President Ripley.

Fought Behind Blinds.

The last witness of the day was M. Maxon, formerly agent of the Standard Oil Co. at various points in Illinois. He said that the Standard Oil Co., through subsidiary companies, fought the independent dealer by reducing rates in their territory, and although the reductions were not made in the name of the Standard Oil Co., it was, in reality, that concern which was making them.

He said that the State oil inspectors did not, except in rare instances, inspect barrels of oil, and that many of them left their stencils in the hands of the Standard Oil Co. over night.

MRS. JEFFERSON DAVIS RALLIES

Confederate President's Widow Improves After Physician Administers Oxygen.

NEW YORK, May 11.—Mrs. Jefferson Davis, widow of the president of the confederacy, is seriously, but not necessarily fatally, ill at the Hotel Gerard in this city.

Mrs. Davis celebrated her eightieth birthday last Monday. She went with a companion for a drive in the forenoon. Shortly after returning to her hotel she was attacked by heart failure, from which she has been a sufferer for several years.

Her condition became so serious early in the evening that her maids called in Dr. Robert H. Wylie. Dr. Wylie administered oxygen and soon there was a marked improvement in the condition of his distinguished patient. Mrs. Davis was then threatened with an attack of typhoid fever, which so far she has been able to fight off. She is said to be much better this morning, and hopes are entertained for an early recovery.

A report saying that Mrs. Davis was dying was sent out from New York yesterday. Mrs. Davis' daughter, Mrs. J. Addison Hayes, lives in Colorado Springs, Colo. She telegraphed her mother inquiring as to her exact condition. Mrs. Davis personally dictated this telegram, which was sent to Mrs. Hayes at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon:

"Undoubtedly very ill. Doctor finds me better this afternoon. Love."

It is expected that Mrs. Hayes will start for her mother's bedside immediately. Jefferson Hayes Davis, a grandson, is a student in Princeton, University. He will come to New York today.

Burglar Thief of Time.

A burglar with a penchant for gold watches visited the 5800 block on Highland avenue and got away with three timepieces. Beside the watches, he got a gold chain, a valuable locket and about $7 in cash. At the home of Charles Kroell, 5964 Highland avenue, he left a clew in the shape of a stocking footmark, 12 inches long and very wide. The same clew was found at the home of Patrick Kenny, 5962 Highland avenue.

Every Heart Beat

Forces about 8 ounces of blood out of the heart, and sends it coursing through the veins to the remotest part of the body. This is the amount required by nature to nourish and sustain your body. Every ounce less than this means a shortage in nature's supply of building-up material. A weak heart cannot meet this demand, and consequently you suffer. If your heart skips a beat, or flutters, palpitates, pains you, or you have shortness of breath, you may be sure that the heart is working imperfectly.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure will strengthen the heart muscles and nerves.

"I had been a great sufferer for 15 years. At the time I commenced taking Dr. Miles' Heart Cure I had been confined to my bed for four months. I had frequent sinking spells, sometimes as many as three in a day, during which my heart would seem to stop beating, necessitating the calling of a physician to resuscitate me. Before finishing the first bottle the sinking spells had ceased, and I took altogether five bottles for a complete cure. I now enjoy perfect health, and am very grateful for this wonderful medicine, for it is the means of my being with my family now."

Young Girls

Avoid The Dangers and Sufferings of Womanhood

Many a girl who graduates from high school or female college with a brilliant record and high standing is broken down before she is twenty.

Nowadays girls are pushed to the limit of their endurance both in school and society. They must make a success—even if they are forever unfitted for the larger school of life and debarred from the happiness of motherhood.

At this time of life, when just entering upon womanhood, nature makes heavy drains upon the vitality, especially at each recurring pain.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

the most wonderful of all tonic restorative medicines for women, will tide a young girl over this trying time and bring her safely into strong, noble, beautiful womanhood.

Experience of a Beautiful High School Girl

Her First Letter.

My Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—I write to see if you can suggest some means to cure me. A little more than a year ago I was unwell for the first time, and since then I have been sick all the time in some way or other. I went to a summer resort for my health and was doctored all summer, but to no effect. I have not been unwell for two months and thought I would see if you could do me any good. I attend High School and would not like to miss any time if it is possible. MARION BARBER, North Adams, Mass.

Miss Barber Writes Again After Two Years

My Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—Some time ago I wrote to you for advice, being troubled with recurring pains and womanly ills. I began taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Liver Pills and using the Sanative Wash, and I am glad to say I am completely cured and have not had any sickness since. I wish to thank you for your kind advice and shall recommend your medicine to my girl friends. MARION BARBER, 101 Bracewell Av., North Adams, Mass.

Free Advice for Young Girls

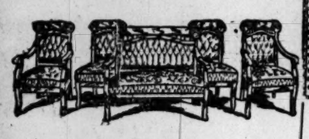

All young girls are earnestly urged to write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass., for advice. Mrs. Pinkham is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, and for twenty-five years under her direction, and since her decease, she has been advising sick women free of charge. Thousands of women are well, strong and beautiful to-day because they made a confidant of Mrs. Pinkham and followed her instructions at this critical time of their lives.

COULDN'T MAKE HIS NEW AUTO GO SLOW

Son of J. C. Van Blarcom, Bank President, Arrested for Speeding.

IN DOWNTOWN STREET

Another Caught on Locust Street After Four Blocks' Race.

Frederick Van Blarcom of 1 Westmoreland place, son of J. C. Van Blarcom, president of the National Bank of Commerce, and John Wolford of 1435 West Billon street appeared in the City Hall Police Court Friday morning to answer charges of exceeding the speed limit in their automobiles.

Van Blarcom was arrested at Fourth street and Washington avenue by Patrolman Morris Silverman. Silverman was at Sixth street and Washington avenue, when he saw Van Blarcom's machine coming east on Washington avenue at a speed which he thought was too fast.

He stepped into the street, but the machine sped past him and ran on to Fourth street, where it was stopped by its chauffeur. The patrolman followed and arrested Van Blarcom.

"What am I arrested for?" asked Van Blarcom.

"For exceeding the speed limit," replied Silverman.

Made 25 Miles an Hour.

"How fast do you think I was going?" asked the young man.

"You were making about twenty-five miles an hour.

"I did not think I was going so fast. This is a new and powerful machine and I have difficulty in holding it down to less than 18 miles an hour, but I do not think I was running faster than that."

Van Blarcom was taken to the Chestnut Street Station, where he gave bond for his appearance in the City Hall Police Court Friday morning.

Wolford was arrested by the automobile police after a spirited chase of four blocks, the race starting near Garrison avenue and Locust street, where Grace Copeland was killed a week ago. The police auto was at Garrison avenue and Locust street, when Wolford it is alleged, flashed by at a speed greater than 25 miles an hour. The police called to him to stop, but Wolford, it is said, only increased his speed.

The police then started in pursuit. The police auto proved the better traveler, catching Wolford at Jefferson avenue, where the police chauffeur turned into the curb, forcing Wolford to stop his machine to avoid a collision.

MUENTER SUSPECT ASKS HIS RELEASE

Man Arrested in Springfield as Harvard Professor Denies Effectively.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 11.—A man, answering the description of Erich Muenter, the Harvard professor wanted in Cambridge, Mass., for the murder of his wife, was arrested here last night. Last night he refused to talk, declaring he was tired.

This morning, after rising from a good night's sleep in the Sangamon County Jail, he accused the local officers of refusing him the aid he asked in establishing his identity, and wrote a telegram to Ed Weise, 201 Fifth avenue, Chicago, as follows:

"Am held here as Prof. Muenter, murderer. Please set these people right.
"W. F. C."

The suspect declares that his name is W. F. Carr an dthath for a number of years he was a highwire performer with Wallace's circus.

"Several months ago," he said, "I fell and broke a leg, and since then I have been unable to work. I was beating my way from St. Louis to Chicago. I dropped into a saloon out there in Ridgeley and asked for a beer. Some boys who had been lounging about the place and reading yellow backs, whispered to the bartender that I was Muenter and he set the officers on me.

"They found me in the woods. If I had been Muenter and had known I was suspected, do you think I would have remained here? When I got into this jail I remembered that Wallace's circus was in town. I wanted the officers to send for the old man. He would have identified me and I could have been free."

The suspect is about 5 feet 6 inches; his handwriting is clear and plain, but not a scholar's. His language is not that of a Harvard professor. His beard is a sandy Vandyke, well trimmed.

GIRL ENDS LIFE AS THREATENED

Stansberry (Mo.) Newspaper Employe Swallows Poison With Fatal Results.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

STANBERRY, Mo., May 11.—Miss Lucia Redmond, aged 20, daughter of John Redmond, ended her life here yesterday morning by taking rat poison.

No reason is assigned for the deed by her relatives.

Miss Redmond had been employed in the office of the Stanberry Herald, a paper published by Postmaster V. T. Williams. She is said to have intimated to other employes of the Herald office that she intended to take her life, but they did not take it seriously.

VAN-CAMP CHOCOLATE FUDGE

WOULD you like to make Fudges that are about five times as delicious as ordinary Fudges?

That simply melt in your mouth and fairly delight your palate with their cloying sweetness?

That are easily digested and healthful because made with the proper kind of cream—Van Camp Sterilized Cream?

Because, Van Camp Cream is the richest, heaviest, and most delicious "Butter-fat flavored" Cream that ever came from a dairy.

Yes, it's cheap—only 10 cents a tin.

Because, it is practically sold at wholesale—by the case. A case has 48 sealed tins of about a pint each. Grocers sell these cases at $4.50, so that each pint tin costs you only about 9 cents each.

You can dilute Van Camp Cream with water, and use it for any purpose you can use milk. As rich milk, it costs you only 5½ cents a quart.

Think of that. Better milk than your Milkman delivers at 8 cents a quart.

And, this Cream (or milk when diluted) is thoroughly sterilized by heat and cold.

That's why Van Camp Cream will keep for years, in your pantry, without souring or spoiling.

And because it keeps, without Sugar, or Drugs, this rich, double-thick Cream can be wholesaled by your grocer, at about half the price your Milkman must charge for the same quality.

Get a case, on trial, from your grocer. Then make Fudge that will be remembered by your family for its delicious flavor.

We'll send you our "Cream Cook Book" for the asking. It tells how to make 40 dainty dishes out of almost nothing, from "left-over" meats, fish, etc.

Address, Van Camp Packing Company, Indianapolis, Ind.

RECIPE
Van Camp's Chocolate Fudge
½ cup Van Camp Cream - .03½
2 cups granulated sugar - .02½
2 level teaspoonfuls cocoa .02½
2 tablespoonfuls butter - .02
½ cup nut meats - - .02
1 teaspoonful vanilla - .00½
For eight people - - .12 5-8

Put two cups of granulated sugar and one-fourth a cup of Van Camps' Sterilized Cream, diluted with one-fourth a cup of water, over the fire; stir until the sugar is dissolved, then let it cook, stirring occasionally, five minutes; add two level tablespoonfuls of cocoa and two tablespoonfuls of butter and cook until, when tried in cold water, a soft ball may be formed; add half a cup of nut meats broken in pieces, and let it stand until cooled a little, then add a teaspoonful of vanilla extract and beat until the mixture thickens. Turn into a pan neatly lined with paper. When set, score for cutting.

Put on Your Thinking Cap

The power to think rests largely upon the things you eat. There is no doubt about this. Start the day on the right food and you will think right — you will think easier, more clearly—all day long. Toasted Corn Flakes are the best food for thinking people, because the weakest stomach digests them easily. Besides they possess more of the elements that build brain, bone and muscle than any other cereal. And they are the most delicious of all ready-to-serve cereals, possessing a flavor never before put into a breakfast food. You'll agree if you try them and they'll agree with you.—10c all grocers.

TWO TRAINMEN KILLED AS TRAIN JUMPS TRESTLE

Fireman and Brakeman on Valley Line Road Crushed Under Wreckage.

THE TRESTLE GIVES WAY

Engineer Escapes by Leap, but Others on Engine Are Caught.

C. V. Williams, the fireman, and J. T. Sutton, a brakeman, were killed in the wreck of a Cotton Belt freight train Friday morning on the Illinois division of the Iron Mountain, between Brownsburg and Renault, 40 miles south of East St. Louis.

The accident was caused by the collapse of a trestle which let the engine fall 20 feet into a creek. E. Nichols, the engineer, jumped and escaped with slight bruises. Five cars followed the engine through the trestle, some of them falling on the engine and burying it under a mass of debris.

The bodies of the men who were killed had not been recovered at noon Friday, though two wrecking crews were at work.

The train left East St. Louis about midnight. It was a fast freight and consisted of 30 cars. The train had passed Brownsburg and was running at a moderate speed when it reached the trestle. There was but slight warning of the collapse, though it gave the engineer time to jump. The fireman and head brakeman, who was riding on the engine, had no time to jump, and they were caught in the mass of debris. News was at once sent to East St. Louis, and wrecking trains were sent to the scene of the disaster.

Wreck Blocks the Track.

Reports of the wreck were brought to the Union Station by trainmen of the Iron Mountain Illinois division, known as the Valley Line, whose train due at Union Station at 6:35 a. m. ran to East St. Louis over the Mobile & Ohio track.

The wrecked train, No. 975, southbound, was loaded with steel, with a few private cars loaded with beef and beer. Three steel cars, one beef car and one beer car followed the engine into the creek.

Clearing Away Wreck.

Wrecking crews were sent from Bixby, south of East St. Louis, and the work of clearing the track was begun before daylight. It was believed that it would be possible to clear the track by afternoon. Meantime trains were diverted to the M. & O. track at Chester and at Millstadt Junction.

The Illinois division of the Iron Mountain was built four years ago as the St. Louis Valley Railroad, and runs from East St. Louis to the Thebes bridge. It is used by the Cotton Belt trains from Thebes to East St. Louis.

WIFE TRADER ASKS FOR HIS RELEASE

Attorney Says Magistrate Could Not Refuse Change of Venue.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

PANA, Ill., May 11.—Lawyer Humphreys of Pana Friday will go before Justice Amos, a committing Magistrate sitting at Shelbyville, and ask for a writ of habeas corpus for his client, T. M. Mosby, who has been remanded to Jail to await trial on a charge of bigamy. Mosby traded his wife of the Mrs. Caudle type for the wife of Fred L. Jackman of St. Louis. In the exchange he gave up a 30-year-old woman with one child for a woman of 40 with six children.

Mr. Humphreys had applied for a change of venue for his client. Justice W. H. Springstun, a brother of Assistant State's Attorney Springstun, refused, however, to grant the change.

"The magistrate had no right," said Mr. Humphreys to a Post-Dispatch reporter, "to refuse to grant a change of venue. It was not within his power. I shall go before Justice Ames and ask for a habeas corpus writ."

Regal Styles are Really New

The 114 Regal stores offer you 58 new Regal styles for Spring wear—styles that are really new and absolutely correct in form and finish—styles that are exact reproductions of the fashionable custom makers' most expensive models, most of them not six weeks away from the designers.

The quick, direct Regal route from factory to wearer keeps Regal styles six months ahead of other ready-to-wear shoe styles.

Furthermore: Regal styles are all new—never one style for the window and another for the store. You get the style you want in the size that fits you exactly.

Regal ¼ sizes make the style you like sure to fit your feet—something it's twice as hard to do with half-sizes.

Regal leathers are of exactly the same grades the custom bootmaker uses. The outside parts and the inside parts as well—never one square inch of any except the best leathers that can be tanned.

JEROME GETS MUTUAL LIFE'S "LOST" BOOKS

Indictment of Several Men of Frominence May Be the Result.

By Leased Wire From the New York Bureau of the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, May 11.—District Attorney Jerome got possession of a mass of records yesterday which are of the utmost importance to the special grand jury that is investigating the alleged criminal doings in the Mutual Life Insurance Co. The records, it is expected, will pave the way for the indictment of several men of great wealth and prominence.

The discovery of the District Attorney included the "lost" records of "Andy" Fields', supply department, which high officials of the Mutual Life have for months declared were made away with and destroyed. Frederic Cromwell, former treasurer of the company, and one of the right-hand men of Richard A. McCurdy, said that the records disappeared mysteriously when the hunt for "Andy" Fields began last fall, and that he was sure they would never come back.

The Truesdale Investigating Committee was never able to find the records. Stuyvesant Fish resigned from this committee after convincing himself that it was the determination of the Peabody administration to prevent a genuine investigation of the company.

Just how serious an effort was made by the Truesdale committee to find the "missing" records is a disputed question. In the Criminal Court Building the effort is regarded as a joke. Two months ago, when he returned, "Andy" Fields declared that the report of the books having been destroyed, so industriously spread by a clique of trustees in the company, was absolutely baseless.

Anxious to Testify.

Mr. Fields, it is believed, had much to do with the District Attorney's getting possession of the records. It is known positively that he is most anxious to go before the grand jury and tell all he knows, both in behalf of himself and of the McCurdys. He contends that others in the company knew everything that was done, and that if the McCurdys and himself are to be held responsible, these others should also be called to an equally strict account.

The one thing that interferes with Fields' desire to face the grand jury is his precarious physical condition. His death at any moment is not improbable. His malady, Bright's disease, has progressed greatly in the past month and has developed other organic troubles. His heart is badly affected and a dropsical condition has also developed. His feet have swollen to twice their normal size and he can move about only with the greatest difficulty.

Fields hopes that a week or two more at his summer home at Ocean Grove, N. J., will put him in condition to come to New York and testify before the grand jury. District Attorney Jerome has been warned by Fields' lawyers and doctors that the ordeal may prove fatal, and for that reason, and knowing Fields' desire to appear, he is willing for the responsibility to rest upon Fields himself.

So much headway has been made by the grand jury in getting at the inner workings of the Mutual's Supply Department, that the District Attorney is in no hurry to examine Fields. Edgar W. Rogers, the head man in Lysander W. Lawrence's stationery store, which was practically an annex of the supply department, and was used by Fields in his "yellow dog" transactions, was before the grand jury and added another chapter to his confession, which was begun on Monday.

$100,000 for "Stationery."

It is now known that approximately $100,000 a year, supposedly spent by the Mutual Life for printing and stationery and charged to that account on the books, was really paid into the "yellow dog" fund, controlled by Fields and disbursed by him.

In 1904 the Mutual Life, according to its books and the sworn statements to the Insurance Department, spent $601,101 for printing and stationery, most of the vast sum being supposedly paid to L. W. Lawrence. Of this at least $100,000 never went for printing nor stationery, but for purposes which the McCurdy administration deemed inexpedient to disclose by regularly entering them upon the books. The practice of charging $100,000 more than the sum actually spent for printing and stationery goes back many years, and was one of the schemes devised to feed the company's "yellow dog" fund.

SAYS MARKED BILLS BRIBED STATE OFFICER

Insurance President Testifies He Paid $5000 for Favorable Report.

IS CHARGED WITH THEFT

Minnesota Official Declared He Wasn't in Business for His Health.

BOASTED OF AUTHORITY

Warned Northwestern Life Co. He Could "Make or Break It."

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 11.—In the trial of William E. Bechtel, charged with stealing funds of the Northwestern National Life Insurance Co. of Minneapolis, the Prosecuting Attorney said today that the amount taken by officers of the company runs from $750,000 to $1,000,000.

President Bechtel testified that he had been held up by former Insurance Commissioner O'Shaughnessy, and had been forced to pay a bribe of $5000 for a good report of his company. O'Shaughnessy, said Bechtel, declared that he was "not in the business for his health." He said he could make or break both companies.

"Later," continued Bechtel, "I met him in a room in the Windsor, St. Paul, and again tried to dissuade him. He said: 'There are two of us and we must have money.'"

The next Sunday Bechtel called a special meeting of the National and Mutual directors. Z. H. Austin—one of the board — suggested that they give O'Shaughnessy marked bills and have him arrested for extortion. Bechtel drew this personal check for $2500 and Wallace Campbell drew one for the same amount. They cashed the checks and turned them into currency and marked the bills.

They met O'Shaughnessy at the Ryan by appointment and Bechtel went to his room, while Campbell and Judge W. A. Kerr waited in the lobby. In the room O'Shaughnessy counted the money several times. Campbell, as Bechtel had planned, knocked at the door, but O'Shaughnessy would not let anybody in. After the count O'Shaughnessy said: "Let's have a highball," but Bechtel was not drinking, and the party broke up.

TWO DEATHS AT ZION CITY INVESTIGATED

Mrs. Harry Cantell and Infant Child Die Without Medical Attendance.

WIFE OF OVERSEER

Husband an Officer of Zion Church in Great Britain and Ireland.

CHICAGO, May 11.—Mrs. Harry Cantell, wife of the general overseer of Zion Church in Great Britain and Ireland, died early today in Zion City.

For several days the elders of the church offered prayers for her recovery. She died without medical attendance and her infant child survived her but a short time. The Coroner's inquest will be held later in the day.

Mrs. Cantell was an Englishwoman and her home was in London.

ST. LOUISAN SLATED FOR A BISHOPRIC.

DR. WILLIAM F. McMURRY.

DR. M'MURRY TO BE MADE BISHOP

St. Louis Minister Likely to Be Honored by Methodist Conference.

The entire St. Louis delegation in attendance in the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, at Birmingham, Ala., continues enthusiastic in its expressed belief that Rev. William F. McMurry of the Centenary M. E. Church, will certainly be one of the new bishops to be elected by the conference. It is believed that this election will be held next Wednesday.

Presiding Elder Sharp, when seen by the Post-Dispatch representative at Birmingham, made the following statement:

"We believe that the election of Dr. McMurry as one of the new bishops is a certainty. He will not be the first chosen, however. Dr. J. J. Tigert will very probably have this honor, and will, I think, be elected on the first ballot.

"I believe that Dr. McMurry will come next, even in the event of there being but two new bishops named. In the event of the conference deciding to elect four, his election will be even more certain."

Dr. McMurry is also optimistic, although not expressing himself at length.

It is reported that the lay delegates were in favor of discussing the practicability of electing four bishops instead of two at the present conference. It was proposed by the laymen to elect two bishops to fill the vacancies and to place two members of the present College of Bishops on the retired list and to elect two new bishops in their places.

This movement, however, did not meet with general favor among the clerical delegates, who are said to be in favor of electing only two bishops at this time.

In case two bishops are elected, it is claimed by other delegations that they will be selected from the following four distinguished divines: Dr. J. J. Tigert of the Louisville Conference, Dr. Seth Ward of the Texas Conference, Dr. Collins Denny of the Baltimore Conference and Dr. J. C. Kilgo, president of Trinity College, Durham, and a member of the North Carolina Conference.

If four bishops are elected the names of the following might be added, they say, as those among the probabilities: Dr. W. F. McMurry of the St. Louis Conference, Dr. James Atkins of the Western North Carolina Conference and Dr. John R. Nelson of the Northwest Texas Conference.

GAS MEN PLAN TO STUDY IN EUROPE

Joint Convention in Cleveland Will Arrange Details of the Trip.

Considerable discussion Thursday followed the meeting of the board of directors of the Laclede Gas Co., Wednesday concerning the joint convention to be held in Cleveland, O., next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. The convention will represent the 1500 companies engage in the manufacture of gas in the United States and becomes important particularly for the reason that there is a distinct inclination on the part of the members of the two associations to consolidate. The joint convention was arranged this year for the particular purpose of a joint effort to bring about a consolidation.

One cause that has been considered the moving purpose of the proposed consolidation is that the general result of studies, investigations, engineering, experiments and tests made under the direction of the various concerns in all parts of the country, will become accessible to all of the officials of the companies.

A year ago the decision was reached by each that a study from all standpoints of the methods and appliances of gas distribution in European cities would be a subject well worth investigation by the most capable engineers and managers of gas companies of this country.

The sending of such a commission abroad, its personnel and the duties it will undertake will be decided at the Cleveland convention.

Vice-President Cowdery of the Laclede company said Thursday that his concern would send 11 men to the convention and that he would accompany them, leaving next Monday night over the Frisco in a special car to join a special train from Chicago. There will be from 400 to 600 members of the two organizations present out of a total membership of 1200.

Among the important subjects to be discussed will be that of the making of two prices of gas—one for fuel and the other for illuminating. This matter is of particular importance to gas companies, for the reason that small consumers of the product are frequently a source of loss of revenue in the aggregate, because of the expense of the equipment necessary for the service. Business Manager J. C. D. Clark of the Laclede company will accompany the representatives from St. Louis.

COUNT SCRATCHED BALLOTS FOR ALOE

Election Commissioners Follow Decision of the Judges of Election.

The Board of Election Commissioners, in secret session at the City Hall, Friday decided, it is said, that six ballots cast in the First Precinct of the Fourth Ward, on which the printed name of Collector Hagerman appears, unscratched, with that of Louis P. Aloe, his Republican opponent, written underneath, should be considered as cast for Aloe.

This decision is the same as that made by the judges of the election, who counted these ballots for Aloe, and will, therefore, not effect the totals.

An attorney interested in the contest proceedings said, in explaining the board's action, that the six ballots improperly scratched were considered regular because their numbers agreed with the registration books and they were properly signed by the judges and clerks. The board, he said, merely listed the ballots as cast for Aloe in its report to the court which ordered the recount. The court, after examination of the board's report and of the improperly scratched ballots, would finally decide whether they should be counted and for whom.

Before the commissioners retired to deliberate, Benjamin Schnurmacher, Republican member of the board, said to a Post-Dispatch reporter:

"The board will not pass on the question of fraudulent or illegal votes. This is a question to be determined by the Circuit Court.

"It will be merely our duty to certify such illegal ballots to the courts.

"I should say, without anticipating the action of the courts, that only fraudulent ballots will be thrown out.

"That is to say, gross fraud in a single ward or precinct will not vitiate all the ballots in that ward or precinct. For example, if we find 99 fraudulent votes in a single precinct and one that is legal the legal vote will be counted irrespective of the fraudulent ones.

"It is true some grave errors have been found in the Fourth Ward. They may have been due partly to gross carelessness.

"We shall make, for the benefit of the courts, exhibits in all cases where illegal voting was done."

While the board was in session the contest clerks began the recount of the Third Precinct of the Fourth Ward. It was said at the board office that this precinct's returns were in better condition than those of any other precinct of any ward so far counted.

During its session the board heard the complaint of Jeptha D. Howe, Republican central committeeman from the Twentieth Ward, who objected to the delegation filed by Nat Goldstein of the same ward for the Republican primaries being under the caption "Regular Republican Delegation of the Twentieth Ward." Howe says his delegations should have this caption.

CITY TREASURER EMBEZZLES $85,000

Newburyport, Mass., Official Admits Big Shortage in His Accounts.

NEWBURYPORT, Mass., May 11.—James B. Felker, Treasurer of this city, who was arrested last night charged with embezzlement from the city treasury, admitted today that his accounts are short not less than $85,000. The greater portion of the money, he said, was invested in mining stocks.

Butcher Fined $100.

Paul Mugele of 3221 South Ninth street was fined $100 and costs Friday by Judge Kleiber in the Wyoming Street Court on a charge of maintaining a slaughter house without a license. The case was reported to the Board of Health some time ago, and Sanitary Officer Reifeiss was sent to investigate. He reported there was a butcher shop on the first floor of Mugele's premises and that calves were slaughtered in the basement.

Varsity Style Clothes For Young Men, $15.00

IT was this store that first taught the men of this city the adaptability of ready-to-wear clothes for artistic apparel, and it has remained for us to keep up the standard of excellence.

Something in the character has made our garments unrivalled in the sphere of clothescraft.

Our tailoring system is responsible. Each specific garment is cut individually and receives that painstaking handwork which is distinct and prominent in our accomplishments of higher qualities.

Acquiring as we do this degree of excellence, we maintain an exclusive standard which comes from our intimate relationship with the finest woolen mills abroad and in our own country, and from the fact that we have our own exclusively confined patterns.

THE RUSSIAN PARLIAMENT.

The meeting of the first Russian Parliament is an event of the first historical magnitude. Whatever may be the fortunes of this assembly, whatever it may accomplish before its dissolution, parliamentary government is a living fact and will, with varying fortunes perhaps, continue to grow in influence and prestige.

We need not attach much significance to the preliminary work. Several days or weeks may be occupied perfecting the organization and ascertaining the diverse sentiments out of which parties will spring. Interest will be suspended until the Parliament declares a purpose. When a measure of progress is proposed we shall be able to guess the temper of the members and discover the direction the revolutionary movement will take.

When that moment arrives the power of the Parliament and the sincerity of the Czar will be speedily revealed. If the leaders of the forward movement are dreamers and mere enthusiasts we may expect more or less turbulence which may keep the capital in an uproar during the life of this Parliament, and little will be accomplished. But if they are practical men we may hope for substantial progress. As for the Czar and the bureaucrats, they will need wisdom and common honesty. If they can read the handwriting on the wall they may be able to save the monarchy. But the autocracy must go. That may be accepted as the minimum of the progressive demands. If Nicholas bows to the inevitable, Russia will work out her problems in peace and order. If he does not, he and his family and the parasites of despotism will be swept out like so much waste.

Years may pass before a final settlement is reached, or it may be accomplished with the swiftness and destructive force of an avalanche. But it will come, and it will satisfy the humane aspirations of the Russian people.

Only 32 days until the test of progress in St. Louis.

A SILENT SATESMAN.

Delegate Frank Hussey of the Twenty-second Ward is a modern, up-to-date statesman.

"That oratory business has got me stopped," he says. Mr. Hussey doesn't believe in oratory. He admits he never heard of Demosthenes and doesn't know what the word means. When he finds out (as he will when he looks in the dictionary), it won't alter his opinion. He won't believe that the Athenian ever played a declamation match with the waves and he will smile at the story about chewing pebbles.

William of Orange saved his country by holding his tongue. Statesman Hussey will save his seat in the House of Delegates by the same policy. But he must take care not to believe in silence so hard that he will forget himself and preach it in 30 columns or 30 volumes as Carlyle did. The merit of silence must not be extolled too copiously.

Tariff revision is not free trade, but the monopolies fear it might be.

QUEENS AND TOREADORS.

The recent hissing of the Queen of Portugal at a Lisbon bull fight—the King having discreetly remained away, knowing that his "subjects" were in a rebellious mood—indicates that affairs political are in rather a menacing shape over there.

Of course, there's always a promise of better things when a people becomes dissatisfied with crowned heads and begins to assert its own power, and it may be that Portugal is about to shake off its heretofore rock-ribbed bourbonism and start on the up-grade toward popular government. There would have been more promise in the situation, however, if the Lisbonites had hissed the bull fight as well as the Queen who witnessed it.

Bull fights and the enlightenment necessary to liberty do not go together consistently. The world of today will feel more confident of Portugal's future betterment when the people of that country abolish the national sport. Hissing a Queen and applauding a toreador are contradictory performances—the latter nullifying the significance of the former.

With the lid on in Kentucky, it is no wonder that snow has been falling there in May.

SCIENTIFIC DEFINITION.

There is now a magazine devoted to the politico-economic aspects of the psychology of suggestion. A college in the Northwest has a professor who gives courses of lectures on it. Business men and advertising men devote special study to it as a science. All of which is eminently right, proper and progressive.

The hot tamale peddler who was arrested for his psychological suggestions on South Broadway knew nothing at all of all this modern science, but he seems to have got its fundamental principle when he represented earnestly to the Police Magistrate before whom he was arraigned for attracting too much attention, that he "had to holler or starve."

This is indeed the fact of the permanent situation in the hot tamale market. It demands the utmost possible publicity. The mistake he made was not one of principle, but of method. According to the very latest authorities on the science of inserting into the public mind by psychological suggestion the idea of what it needs in the way of tamales and everything else, he was entirely right in principle. Hence it is comforting to know that his sentence was stayed on good behavior and his promise to follow the suggestive method in its more modern forms hereafter.

If Chairman Forman of the Citizens' Campaign Committee succeeds in getting harmony of all elements and organizations outside of the Bridge Combine and its allies, of course, he will do a great stroke for St. Louis and will make June 12, 1906, a memorable date in the city's history.

THE SAN FRANCISCO PROBLEM.

Mr. E. H. Harriman, who, by reason of his railroad and allied interests, probably wants San Francisco rebuilt as much as any man, counsels careful deliberation and prudence in the matter of financing the work of reconstruction. He emphasizes the recent warning of the Post-Dispatch against hysterical and hasty plans. He says that the business men should demonstrate their ability to recover the business of the city and should point out the basis upon which credit can be given before wholesale credit plans are adopted, or large credit is provided for. In short, it is, as we insisted, a business proposition, to be dealt with carefully and with sound business judgment. Mr. Harriman thinks the work of rebuilding will be slow.

It is absurd to talk of dealing with the San Francisco rebuilding proposition as a matter of philanthropy on the part of either the Government or of private capitalists. The San Francisco business men must develop and demonstrate the soundness of San Francisco values, and of its investment and business opportunities for the future. They must show that it is possible to meet earthquake and fire contingencies and that its trade and population can be regained.

The San Francisco people deserve unbounded sympathy and aid in their misfortunes and all the cooperation consistent with good judgment in their efforts to rebuild. Unstinted admiration and honor are due them for the faith and energy with which they have undertaken their staggering tasks.

With solid trains of sole leather coming into St. Louis and solid trains of white lead going out, there can be no doubt about a great swell in the volume of St. Louis business.

A JUSTICE'S VIEW OF MARRIAGE.

Justice of the Peace Greensfelder, who has performed the marriage ceremony more than 5000 times since 1894, thinks that only ministers of the churches should be authorized to tie the knot matrimonial.

"There is no sanctity about a marriage performed in a dingy office by a magistrate," he says. "Of course the ceremony is legal and all that, but it is not impressive. Young men and girls find it entirely too easy to go into an office and come out man and wife."

No doubt the ceremony is not impressive when performed in the midst of loungers and spittoons. But it is doubtful if the average pair of young runaways would be impressed by the most solemn service. The notion of responsibility is the last thing that enters their heads. The "holy estate of matrimony" is to them not even a phrase. To many of them the whole performance is a lark, an escapade, a jolly joke, etc.

Neither clergyman nor justice of the peace is impressive to such young things. The best way to reform is to educate parents. Teach them that a child is a holy thing, but that it must be properly reared if it is not to become very unholy and unmanageable. It is too late to begin at the ceremony of marriage. Begin with the persons who brought the youngsters into the world. And if possible begin early in life with them.

Now that the entire Massachusetts Legislature has been summoned before a grand jury, the statement that this body is bought and sold as are sausages and fish at the markets and wharves will be recalled.

The acquisition of a St. Louis reporter as a preacher in its pulpits may do much to reclaim Buffalo from its evil ways.

The gathering of undertakers was more humorous than a convention of humorists.

YOUNG LAWYERS IN THE CITY.

In a lecture before an Eastern college of law Mr. Henry W. Sackett said:

"When the young practitioner first starts out in the great metropolis on his own behalf or in partnership with other men in the same position as himself he meets with one of the hardest tasks of his whole career, getting business for himself. As a noted lawyer once put it, he must have 'constitutional fitness for the job.'

"High scholarship, lofty principles, profound knowledge of the law, integrity, combined with up-to-date business methods, are the necessary qualities. Men of incorruptible integrity are now the leaders of the profession in the metropolis, men who are clean not only in private life but also in connection with their clients. Contrary to the general belief, lawyers for big corporations prevent more wrongs than the corporations commit, and those committed are, I know for a fact, almost without exception done in direct opposition to the advice of counsel. The young lawyer need have no fear of contamination from city practice. There never was a time when the moral and ethical standard was higher in the New York bar than it is today among the leaders of the profession."

IGNORANCE.

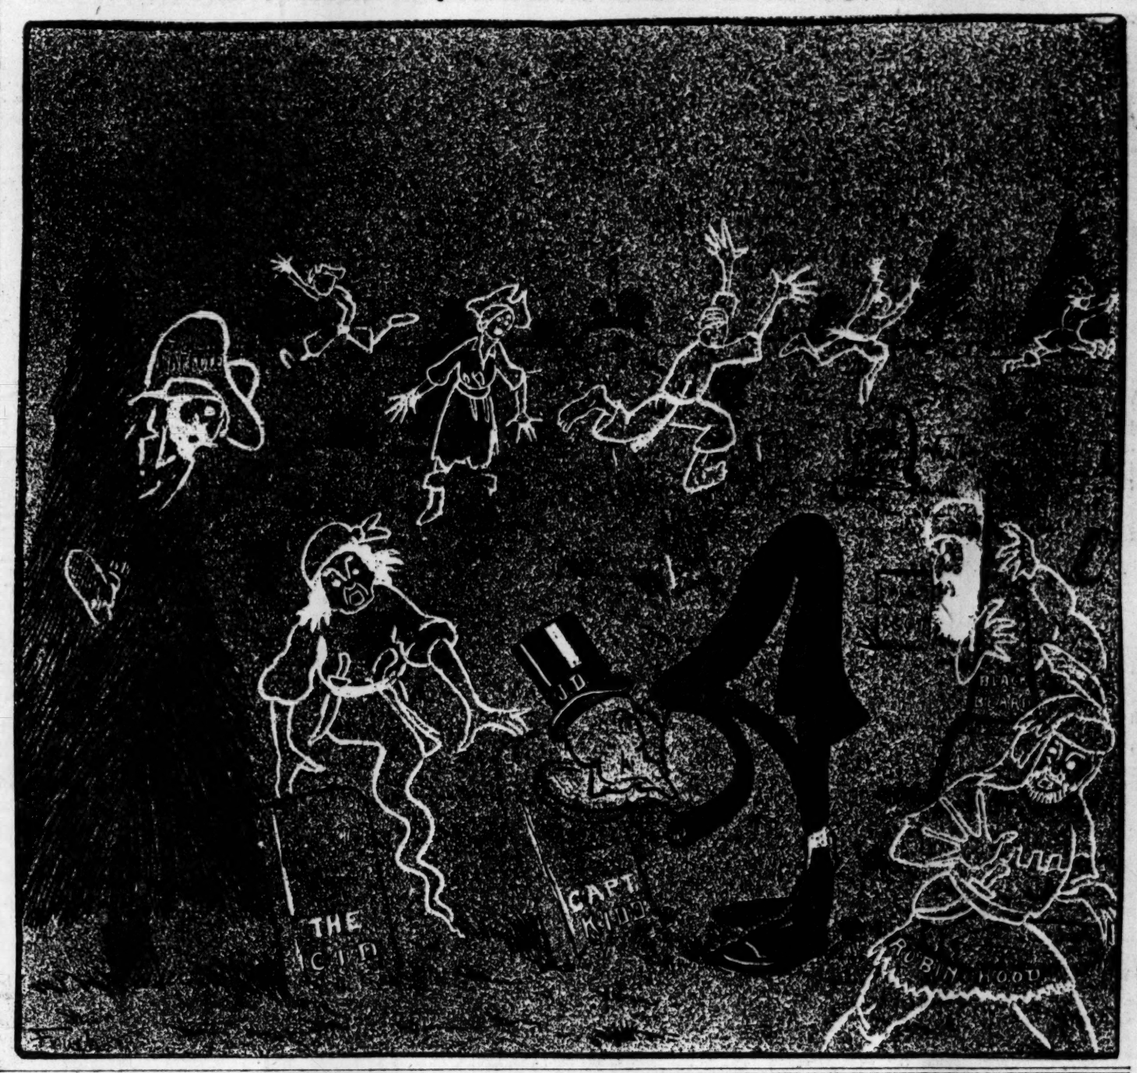

From Puck.

Squire Smathers (a bit volcanically): How shall we curb the growing rapacity of the trusts and combines? How, I ask you, shall we redeem the nation for the polluting clutches of the grafter, the boodler and the demagogue, and preserve unsullied the spotless escutcheon handed down to us by Washington and the framers of the Declaration of Independence?

The Old Codger (cheerily): I don't know, and, truth to tell, I haven't the slightest idee. Ye see, I haven't attended a single high school commencement this year.

LOOKING UP HIS ANCESTORS

A Post-Dispatch Cartoonist's Pictorial Comment Upon Mr. Rockefeller's Declared Intention to Inquire Into His Family Tree.

JUST A MINUTE

With Post-Dispatch Poets and Humorists

RALLY RHYME.

Let us all be up and doing
In the spirit that responds
To the urgent need for wooing
Public favor for the bonds.

Let us all get out and hustle
With a unanimity
That will put us on our muscle
And assure us victory.

If we know a man dissenting
From the faith we represent,
Let us unto him presenting Edifying argument.

Lives there any non-conformist
Doubting if the bonds should pass,
Let the battle there be warmest,
There the ultra-valiant mass.

Let us all be up and doing,
Lest the echo be a thud
And the ends we are pursuing
Shall be named forever Mud.

Lives there one Laodicean
To our knowledge, let us rove
Thither instantly and see an
We can set him on the stove.

Is there anywhere a doubting
Man desiring to be shown,
Thither hurriedly with shouting,
Let the stony soil be sown.

Something doing every minute,
Working morning, night and noon,
Or we never shall be in it
On the coming 12th of June.

"Easy money" was not spoken
Of the money in the bonds;
And we must stir up the folk an
Public sentiment responds.

Everybody is worked up but Father Sherman.

The fewer people a man knows, the bigger seat hog he is.

SPARTACUS ET AL.

Commencement days are coming around, and our old friend Spartacus is with us again. How dear to one's heart are the memories of those old school days, when the ancient was never so poor in esteem that some valiant youth did not arise and begin in the words of Bill Nye:

"Friends, Romans, countrymen,
Lend me your ears.
I will return them on Saturday noon."

Ah! Ah! Those were days! Those were heydays! And just to prove that the privileges of youth are in no whit different today than they were when we were young, look over these subjects from the Smith Academy declamation contest last night:

"Spartacus to the Roman Envoys."
"Pitts' Reply to Walpole."
"Cassius' Persuasion of Brutus."
"A Defense of the Irish Race."
"Liberty and Union."

ST. LOUIS THROUGH FUNNY GLASSES

Written for the Post-Dispatch
By Irvin S. Cobb.

WITH us who have been in town long enough to vote it is customary to shudder when reminded of the old place in the country. Well, it was pretty fierce, wasn't it?

Do you remember the marble table with the dropsy of the legs and the chilled morgue slab for a top? And the horsehair sofa from the Glacial period? And the walls, slick and white and shiny like the inside of an egg, relieved by a cheerful funeral wreath of wax flowers in a glass case and a crayon portrait of Uncle Henry enlarged from a photograph showing Uncle Henry in the act of wearing his annual collar? The portrait didn't do Uncle Henry justice, but the frame did. It cost $12, and the agent threw in the portrait in consideration of our taking the frame. Dear Uncle Henry! Every well-regulated family had him. His idea of a good time was to sit up with somebody who was dead and argue Infant Damnation in the affirmative.

The companion piece to Uncle Henry was Aunt Melissa, whose new store teeth used to slip outside when she got excited and try to bite her. She rode in a second carriage at every funeral that took place in Wingo Township for 40 years except once. That once was the time she rode in the hearse. Her severely plain Doric or lignum vitae features were embalmed in the family photograph album, that dear old velvet tone with latches on it like a smokehouse door and pictures of long-faced second cousins with their front hair frizzed low on the brow like trotting horses or princesses of a royal family of Europe. The other half of the parlor literature was a chaste volume entitled "Treasures of the Prose World," that weighed 11 pounds, and when you held it in your lap your legs went to sleep and the circulation suspended below the knees.

But we forget what was behind the scenes—the hot biscuit, and 11 kinds of preserves for supper, and the bedroom big enough to hold a county convention in, and real milk from a real cow, and spring chickens that were not Shanghai welterweights trained down to the bantam class.

We may think we've got that kind of living skinned to a core here in town, but have we? What of your little flat? What of the library which so closely resembles a lockbox that you feel like second-class mail matter all the time you're in it? What of the kitchen where there isn't room for the cook and a potroast at the same time, and the bathroom that is crowded to suffocation by the bathtub and one towel?

THE FUNNY PART:

Nothing but a circus can induce our country cousins to come in and see us.

In dawdling.
In indecision.
At the race track.
In poor judgment.
In worrying and fretting.

In a bad business location.
In trusting unworthy people.
In oversangine expectations.
In trying to get rich quickly.
In letting their ambition cool.

In not daring to take chances.
In waiting for something to turn up.
It went down in drink and up in smoke.
In trying to take short cuts to success.
In working only when they felt like it.
In neglecting their personal appearance.
In looking on the dark side of everything.
In overconfidence born of a first easy victory.
In choosing a silly, extravagant girl for a wife.
In not being ready for the opportunity when it came.
In dreaming of great things instead of doing the little ones at hand, says Success Magazine.
In being so disagreeable and selfish that they could not make friends.
In waiting for somebody to help them or give them a boost, or for some rich uncle to die.
In refusing to take the positions they could get because they did not know whether they would like the work or not.

STORIES TOLD IN WASHINGTON

To a Correspondent of the Post-Dispatch.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—The Postmaster in a Western city wanted a new carpet for one of the rooms in the Federal building in his town.

He wrote to the Division of Supplies about it. His letter was returned with instructions to write another, telling the dimensions of the carpet required.

He wrote again, giving the desired information. That letter with its official indorsements and another was sent to the carpet factory that has the contract for making carpets. The carpet was made and the department here notified. The factory was ordered to send the carpet here. The carpet came. Then the department wrote to the man in the West telling him his carpet was here, and he wrote back asking that it should be sent along. A letter was written to the express company telling the agent to come and get the carpet. He responded and the carpet was shipped. The postmaster wrote acknowledging the receipt of the carpet, and that closed the incident, after another letter had been written acknowledging the receipt of the acknowledgment.

That is a typical Government operation. They would rather write letters than do anything else in the departments, except take their 30 days' leave and their 30 days' sick leave.

There is a great scandal among the chefs of the city. Burning with a desire to do something for the San Francisco sufferers, the chef of the Austrian embassy organized a culinary exposition at Rauscher's, the proceeds of the sale of the set pieces, if that is what they are called, to go to the sufferers.

The Baroness Hengelmueller was graciously pleased to give the affair her patronage. Not so some of the other chefs. They held a mass meeting and protested. The Austrian chef is not the dean of the chefs. Poof! He ranks below the chef for the Italian embassy, although the Austrian ambassador is acting dean. Moreover the chefs of the private families have no concern with the chefs of the official establishments.

The culinary exposition was held, but the chefs who refuse to be led by a chef who is not a dean of chefs are wildly proclaiming that the exposition was not worthy the art of the chefs of the city and did not accurately represent them. It looks as if there may be a tragedy before it is ended. The chefs are holding meetings every night and party feeling is running high. A chef, it must be understood, like a coachman and a butler, takes rank from his employer. Far be it from an ambassadorial chef to mingle with a ministerial chef, and far be it from the chef of the dean of the diplomatic corps to follow the chef of one farther down the line.

Representative Butler of Pennsylvania kidnaped Uncle Joe Cannon this morning and took him to Statuary Hall, where he introduced the Speaker to 150 young men and women from the Butler district.

Two priests, who were later introduced to the Speaker by Representative Rodenburg, watched the performance.

"We hoped, Mr. Speaker," said one of the priests, "that we might see you repeat Capt. Hobson's feat."

"By George!" exclaimed the Speaker, "I never thought of that. That is another of my wasted opportunities."

OVER THE TEA CUPS

Written for the Post-Dispatch
By ROSE MARION.

"WON'T it be fun when we have a great big bargain day every month?" asked Nippy as she counted over the parcels in her shopping bag to make sure that none was lost.

Dreamy was busy pressing all the juice out of her strawberries with a fork and sprinkling powdered sugar over the "crushedness."

"Learned this from the president of the Woman's Noonday," she had just explained. "She says it's the only way to get every bit properly sweetened."

Burny was attracted by the bargain subject from the mustard spread she was giving sliced tomatoes.

"Glorious," she replied, "but we'll have to get up hours earlier than usual to get ahead of the crowds. Suppose they'll have extra detachments of police and all the fuss of the comic supplements. They're going to sell cheap tickets for miles around."

"Copy cats," said Dreamy, as she gave the last berry an extra press.

"Why speakest thou thus?" asked Burny. "If you're calling us feline names, for suggestion's sake be diminutive. Kittens is a prettier word, makes one think of playing with pith balls instead of clawing and scratching."

"Don't affect denseness, Burny," said Dreamy. "It doesn't harmonize with the leading lights in your color scheme. Neither be conceited enough to think that you are always the subject of my conversation. I'm speaking of this bargain day idea. They had that down in Harrison, Ark., years before they had a railroad. They call it salesday, and everybody buys."

"Harrison, Ark., is where?" asked Nippy with the geographical ignorance of the city born which would be just as apparent if she were referring to Kalamazoo.

"On Crooked Creek, in Boone County, southeast of Eureka Springs," answered Dreamy. "They had a salesday Saturday, and gave prizes for different things. I've forgotten those that had to do with crops, but remember there was one for the prettiest sunbonnet and another for the nicest lawn shirt waist, home-made of course. Also one for the finest mule colt. Mule colts are plentiful down in Missouri—near Arkansas.

"Besides a money prize for the couple that was married in the grandstand as well as a tailor-made suit and a 41-piece set of dishes for the bride and a year's subscription to two of the town papers.

"That sounds a little street fairish, but Harrison is so far from that that it's different.

"It's a hill town with mountains to make a horizon setting. It has a finer Government building than St. Louis, and all the girls that want to take up claims in Arkansas go there to have them filed. The water is like that at Eureka Springs, and you can spend a day skipping stones over Crooked Creek or you can follow it back to the woods and wade.

"I'll wager these mint drops that in a year this same Harrison will have more original ideas at its salesdays than St. Louis has at its bargain days. Not long ago they gave a prize for the largest load of women that came to town. The prize went to the wagon driver that brought 33.

"Harrison has other ideas of originality. Its society girls have a band. Its club girls make candy and put it on sale in the stores. Its hotels have good things to eat. It didn't re-elect Congressman Dinsmore, who secured its Government building. Its train stops one whole hour for dinner, and its livery men have such fierce competition that they beg passengers to ride free. It has men 80 years old who are expert rifle shots, but who were never on a railroad train. Its distance to Eureka Springs used to be expressed in this language: 'Four days, two mules and five gallons of whisky.'

"Circuit Attorney Sager used to live there, and David R. Francis knows the town. Saw his name on the Park House register. That's the hotel on the creek.

"Wonder which of them brought the bargain day idea to St. Louis?"

CLEVER THINGS I NEVER SAID

Written for the Post-Dispatch By Lowe R. Case.

BILL BRYAN, ex-Presidential impossibility, was recounting to me his adventures among the Arab tribes during his impersonally conducted tour of the world.

"The Bedouins are a strange people," he prattled, interestingly. "They live in tents. When they want to move they simply fold those tents and become"—

"Folding Bed-ouins?" I suggested with a roar of silvery laughter in which (after an hour or two of pensive thought) the Silver King heartily joined.

John D. Jr. was practicing on me his next Sunday's address to the class. Having rambled along for some time in scintillating generalities he whipped the following startling original remark over my guard, flush into my face:

"Be temperate in all things, but hitch your wagon to a star!"

"If the Star is like some of those I've met," I wittily reparteed, "I'm afraid he won't stand for the temperance."

Bill Stone and I were humorously rehashing the case of a public man, good and great in every respect except that he WOULD graft.

"And to think!" sighed the senator, "that I always looked on that snake in the grass as one of the pillars of society, while all the time he was only"—

"One of the cater-pillars," I finished, with one of my rare and dazzling smiles.

Insurance Commissioner Vandiver and I were just returning from a jolly little insurance dinner given at the Planters by Missouri policy holders of the Mutual.

"Funny story the Bishop told tonight," commented Andy, "about the ancients offering up all their wealth to the Golden Calf. We've grown wiser since those days."

"Yes, indeed," I agreed rapturously, "we save it all now for an offering to the Yellow Dog!"

Opening a Fountain Pen.

If your fountain pen is stuck so you cannot unscrew it, wrap a small rubber band tightly around the nozzle or pen part. This will give you a grip on the pen that will nearly always fetch it. If you cannot get it to come off by using the rubber, try putting a little powdered rosin on the fingers. I have never known the rosin to fail; but it is rough for the hand. Rosin on the hand will always fetch a tight watch-case or any other smooth, screw-joint article.

VARIETY IN FOOD

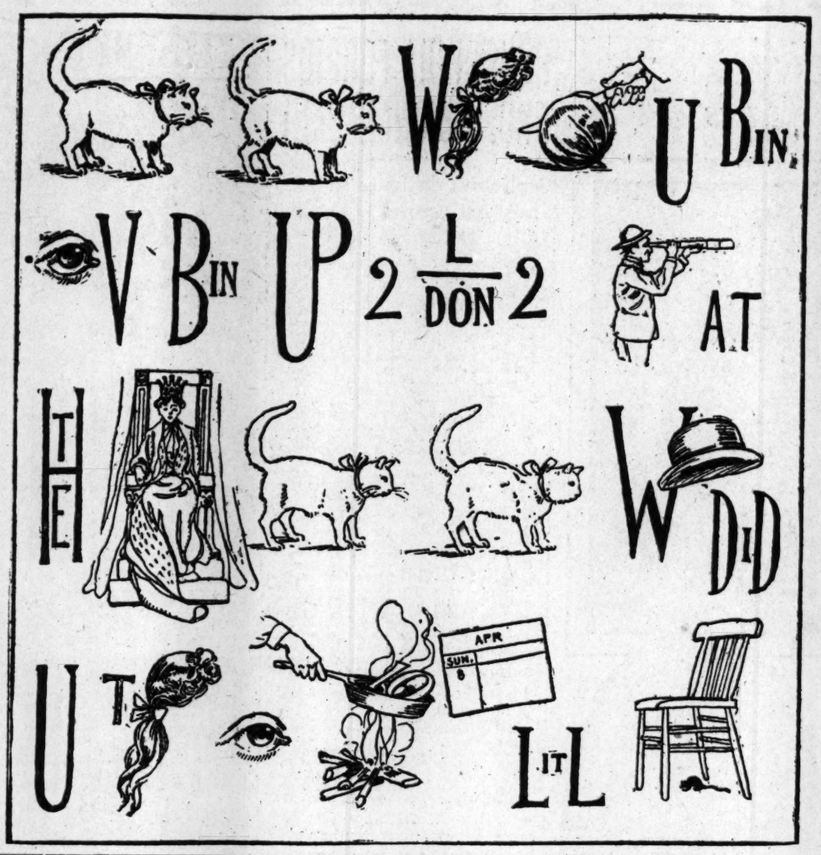

Any food, no matter how good it may be, becomes very tiresome if served over and over again in the same old way. Variety in food as well as variety in the methods of cooking the same food is essential. Spaghetti offers a change from the ordinary daily diet, and Faust Brand Spaghetti is a food that offers a great variety of wholesome and appetizing dishes. It is so tasty and nourishing. The numerous recipes contained in our free booklet afford a new dish for every day in the week. This booklet contains valuable information about Spaghetti as well as the recipes—it will be sent to anyone for the asking.

Faust Brand Spaghetti is a very nutritious food as it contains the body building elements of the best grade of Durum wheat, is easily digestible and very palatable. Faust Brand Spaghetti is sold by leading grocers everywhere.

SOCIALISM IN AMERICA

What It Means.

San Francisco and Socialism.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch.

Have read with some interest letters in last evening's Post-Dispatch under "Socialism in America," I feel like making a very brief reply to them.

First, to Mr. M. M.: San Francisco could not have been under socialism unless the entire nation were so, the seat of Government must be Socialist before its dependents can be. Then there would have been no incentive for ghouls, for every inhabitant would have known the Government would have immediately forwarded all necessities and that after full value for labor rendered would have been received, employment found for all, and the helpless cared for. Theft is a child of capitalism. Will quote here from Mr. Wayland on the subject: "The destruction of San Francisco, with 25 other towns and cities of the Pacific Coast by earthquake and fire illustrates how impotent the individualistic system is to cope with such a catastrophe. Of course the people will generously pour out millions to help the unfortunate in their immediate peril and distress, but tens of thousands will be financially ruined and never regain their footing; the struggle will be full of horrors and suffering before they will get places to live and employment."

Under socialism the whole nation would own the city and the loss would not be felt when shared by all; the entire force of organized society would at once be set in motion to put every person in other places and employment and the rebuilding of the city would be done with all the wealth of the nation at its disposal. There would not be a bankrupt or impoverished person in the nation because of this holocaust. The entire loss could be replaced with not over 10 days' labor for each adult worker of the nation, and when it was replaced it would belong to all the people and not to a few, and could not be used for the few to extort profits from those whose labor and lives have builded it, as will be the case when it is rebuilt under the capitalistic system. Will the pain of the present never teach the people the idiocy of the individualistic methods of owning the means of production and distribution.

William Vincent Byars should get a copy of Charles H. Vail's "Modern Socialism" and read it through before trying to tell the relation of Modern Socialism to private property. He displays ignorance on the subject. Or the gentleman might procure a copy of the St. Louis Mirror of March 29, 1906, where he will find a quotation from above book, under "Letters From the People." A philosophy as broad and flexible as is Socialism cannot be called absolute.

Ernest H. Crosby gives five objections to Socialism, or rather errors of the same. Socialism is largely based on the materialistic conception of history, and on the many times proven truth that the prevailing mode of economic production and exchange form the basis upon which is built up the political, intellectual and social history. How, then, can Socialism "distrust" natural laws?

2. Material environment may include all the idealism we can give it, being only limited by knowledge and desire to shape environment.

3. No intelligent Socialist pretends to predict the future except on great general principles and through natural laws. Its infinite flexibility will find a solution of every and any national problem when the nation reaches it.

4. All struggle for justice is in a sense a class struggle. Different ideas are what form classes, and differences always admit of either justice or injustice. Merely on the ground then of difference in opinion from the capitalist class, Socialism is truly a class struggle. The fifth error seems hardly worthy of notice, that Socialism excludes liberty. The world is certainly growing in knowledge and wisdom, and we will say in goodness. Now, having these three, no philosophy or government can chain the people, but if adopted will simply serve to direct these great forces.

J. E. W.

United States were to adopt Socialism in its entire form old conditions would be changed for a time, but new ones would be gradually developed having the same character as at present. Men would rise whom no laws could repress, who would by sheer force obtain power and dictate their own terms. If a body of such men obtained control of the Government a more absolute despotism, under Socialism, could not be imagined. The weak could protect themselves no better than at present. It would be a fulfillment of that inexorable law "The weak must perish," from which there is no escape.

Man must work out his mission subject to the laws laid down by an allwise Providence. Conditions may seem cruel to our eyes, but we have to take them as we find them. The brave man accepts them fearlessly and sinks or swims alone, conscious of his individuality, unfettered by any bonds.

NEW YORK VIEWS

Written to the Editor of the World

The Survival of the Fittest.

The greatest advocates of Socialism are generally those who occupy a precarious position in society. Feeling helpless before the onslaught of adverse circumstances, they seek something with which to sustain themselves. Socialism is their life-buoy and serves as the straw to the drowning man.

There is no denying the fact that a large percentage of our population is practically living from hand to mouth, liable in times of depression to feel the iron hand of hunger. Will Socialism be a remedy for this state of affairs? I think not.

Scientists tell us that among the lower animals it is a case of the survival of the fittest. This is a natural law and applies in exactly the same way to the human race. Misery and privation accompany the development of this law, but we must not judge by the present, but consider the ultimate result. The horse, with his present size and strength, has been developed from a small animal simply because his weaker ancestors succumbed, leaving the stronger to perpetuate the species. So with the human race. The weak must perish if mankind is to retain its vigor.

Socialism tends to destroy individuality, to remove all incentive to fight for personal security. It is in this bitter struggle that character is developed, that men are made. With the necessity to fight removed men would become vegetables, lacking those aggressive qualities that make a people. If the

NO PERSON

Would Make Such a Proposition to the People of St. Louis, Unless They Were Absolutely Sure.

Did you ever know or hear of a person who would offer to return every cent you paid him if he could not build up health and create strength and vitality for old people, weak, sickly women and children and the convalescent, create an appetite, cure stomach troubles, make those who are too thin, fat, rosy and healthy? Or cure hacking coughs, chronic colds, throat and bronchial troubles?

This is exactly the offer the Wolff-Wilson Drug Co. make to every person in St. Louis.

Their offer is based upon what is considered to be the greatest strength-creator and health-restorer known to medicine, Vinol, which is the up-to-date form of administering cod liver oil, recognized for centuries as the grandest of all body-building agents for wasted human strength and vitality.

In Vinol the useless system-clogging oil has been simply done away with, giving to the people all the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers.

As a body-builder and strength-creator for old people, weak women, puny children, after sickness and for all pulmonary diseases, its fame has spread so far that it is now guaranteed by over two thousand leading druggists of the country, and especially by us. Wolff-Wilson Drug Co.

A tall thin doctor in the town had an office, out of which a door led into a small laboratory, says Harper's Weekly. One day, while working there, an Italian fruit seller entered the office. Finding the room deserted, he turned to leave, but by mistake opened the door to the doctor's closet, in which was a human skeleton, in all its awfulness. The sight was too much for the poor Italian. Dropping his basket of fruit, he made his escape in a panic. The doctor heard the commotion, and came from the laboratory to see what the matter was. The open closet door and the fruit scattered on the floor instantly explained the situation. He went to the window and saw the frightened Italian standing on the sidewalk below, looking up at the window.

"Come up," said the doctor, at the same time beckoning with his long bony finger.

"No, you don't," exclaimed the fellow, shaking his head. "I know you, if you have got your clothes on!"

THE WOMAN'S CORNER

Deodorizing Glue.

A teaspoonful of saltpeter added to a large pot of glue will effectually remove its bad odor; besides, it causes the glue to dry faster and harder than it would without the saltpeter.

Young Woman's Bold Exploit.

With only an Indian halfbreed as helper, Lillian K. Malcolm, a woman mining prospector in Nevada, professes her belief that she has discovered a ledge of rich copper and gold ore in a ridge 3000 feet long in the foothills of Death Valley. Miss Malcolm, who claims to have traversed the wilds of Alaska in search for gold and has been a prospector for ten years, made up her mind to examine the funeral range and there found this ledge, which she believes holds millions for the skilled miner, and that the fame for opening up the copper region of Death Valley belongs to her.

Lady Grey's Wavy Hair.

From the Cleveland Leader.

Those who have said that English women don't know how to dress their hair would have another guess had they seen the coiffures of Lady Grey and her women friends when they were in town last week on their way to Washington. At a luncheon which Mrs. John Jacob Astor gave for them, both Lady Grey and her daughter, Lady Everlyn, as well as Lady Alexander Beauclerk, their guest, wore their hair waved, and several little cards lay flat upon their foreheads underneath the pompadour, thus softening the face. The New Yorkers had a little fluffiness of short hair there, but the English way was much more effective. Indeed, while New York social lights were not extinguished by their guests, some of them shone better at a distance from the center of the stage.

The Red-Haired Girl.

From the Philadelphia Bulletin.

Dark shades of blue are usually becoming to red-haired women.

She should not wear the pale shades of blue unless she has dark eyes and a bright complexion.

The creamy-skinned "strawberry blond" may wear all shades of green, golden and reddish brown, all shades of purple from palest mauve to royal, all shades of gray, and certain tones of pink and yellow—the latter only when the strawberry blond has dark eyes.

Black and white are, of course, always becoming to Titian, carrot, or brick-topped beauties.

Several Household Hints.

In many rooms where everything else is correct the pictures are hung wrong. The proper plan to hang any picture is not where it will "balance the room," but where it gets the best light; and many a good picture is completely wasted because this precaution is not observed. Another fault is that pictures are hung too high. Don't put them above the level of the eye, if you want them to be seen and admired.

When decanters or carafes become so discolored inside that shot or fine coals will not cleanse them, fill the bottle with finely shaved potato skins. Cork tightly and let the bottle stand for three days, when the skins will ferment. Turn out and rinse. The bottles will be as bright and clean as when new.

If a cloth be wrung out of water and laid over the registers, when removing the ashes, the annoyance of dust flying over the rooms from the furnace will be done away with.

WHOLESALE RELEASES ON CARDINAL CLUB

Smoot, McCarthy, Thompson and Theilman Slated for Decapitation by the Management of the Local National League Team.

Monsieur McCloskey will be doing the Monsieur de Paris act—cutting off heads—at League Park next week.

Judging from the fact that he has asked other league clubs to waive claim to Smoot, Thompson, McCarthy and Theilman indicates that these young gentlemen will not be members of the Cardinal crew after this week.

It is said that Raub is also one of the men upon whom waivers have been asked, but the excellent hitting of the blond backstop would seem to preclude the possibility of release. It is also hinted that Pitcher Puttman will be put on the block unless he shows more than he has since his arrival in St. Louis. Smoot has been claimed by the Philadelphia club. The others have not been demanded by any major league organization.

Changes have been frequent in the Cardinals line-up this year, and it is said they will continue to be made without sentiment or favor until the Cardinals assume a more prominent position in the pennant race than they are occupying at present.

Jimmy Burke was the first of the Cardinals to be let out, the releases of Hausen, Houtz, James, Perrine, Dunleavy, Burns and Holmes following in rapid succession.

Last Saturday Oscar Stanage, the young catcher recommended to the Cardinals by Danny Shay, was exchanged to the Cincinnati club with $1000 for Pitcher Druhot.

If the above contemplated changes are consummated it will leave the Cardinals with the following players: Raub, Grady, Slattery, Adams, Taylor, Egan, Brown, Hoelskoetter, McFarland, Beckley, Bennett, McBride, Arndt, Shannon, Himes, Druhot and Danny Shay, who has not reported.

GUYETT KEEPS M. A. C. EMPLOYES ON TOES

New President of Big Club Has Injected Energy Into the Heads of Departments Especially Along Athletic Lines—Wants a Swimming Instructor.

President Guyett of the Missouri Athletic Club finds himself up against some nice propositions in club management in the first month of his career.

Since its opening, or immediately after, in any event since the retirement of G. H. Genslinger, within a month after its opening, the Missouri Athletic Club has run through force of its own impetus, or rather the impetus which Genslinger gave it. As a rule machines which run of their own impetus go down grade. If the M. A. C. has been running up grade it is because it has been lucky not because it has been particularly well managed.

Mr. Russell Gardner, the first president of the reorganized club, did a great work of finance, but retired without giving the club details of inside management any attention.

Mr. Day, its second president, a very nice gentleman, was really too clever a fellow to interfere. So the club kept opening every day through mere force of habit.

Guyett a Man of Force.

This new president, Guyett, is a man of other old. He manages a huge shoe factory. Handling men and affairs is his daily occupation. Taking care of a small thing like the M. A. C. is merely half an hour's after-dinner recreation for him.

With him at the helm the M. A. C. will not run as it pleases.

The first snag Mr. Guyett ran up against was in the swimming department. Meffert, the swimming instructor, has been in the habit of working all winter at the club. Then, when summer comes, he goes to his private swimming school in New York. This leaves the M. A. C. with a swimming instructor in winter and without one in summer. And this is about as much of a joke as employing a man to cut the lawn grass in February and sweep snow in July.

Nobody but a few "hugs" want to swim, even in the M. A. C. pool, in winter. Everyone wants to swim in summer except cats and tramps. The two Schwarz boys kept Meffert busy in winter. Then the entire membership was in danger of drowning in the summer there was no one to teach them to flip a fin.

Swimming for Business Men.

The point is this: Meffert is a splendid instructor, none better. But his work in winter has been confined to the kids who swim in competition. The M. A. C. is a club not confined to its so-called athletic members, who get free tickets and all the instruction. Mr. Guyett wants to make it an athletic club for business men.

Business men have not the time or the inclination to swim in winter. Few but full-blooded, hardy athletes have. It is very easy to catch cold from winter bathing unless you take time to cool off after leaving the water. Business men have not this time.

Mr. Guyett feels that there should be a great class of summer swimmers at the M. A. C.; no Schwarzes or Daniels, but Smiths and Jones and Browns and Robinsons. And he wants an instructor to teach these men to swim often and far and surely and with strength in the good old summer time.

Meffert is a splendid man. But he goes to his New York school. Of course New York is a great place and Meffert is right to make as much money as he can, but what is St. Louis going to do while he is teaching New Yorkers to swim. Stay home and drown?

Not if Big Man Guyett knows it. Guyett wants Meffert, or if Meffert cannot be secured, some good man to take the M. A. C. tank and teach the members to swim and to take them to the river and have long paddles every week, beginning at a mile and gradually going up to five and ten miles during the summer.

Meffert is due to leave May 16. Mr. Guyett will have a meeting of his board of governors meanwhile to decide whether Meffert shall be offered inducements to give up New York or another man secured to substitute for him or to take his place permanently.

Getting Busy Upstairs.

President Guyett is also shaking up the other athletic departments. Up to very recently the M. A. C. Gymnasium resembled nothing so much as a sanitarium, or a lazy day in the Sahara.

Billy Trueman, the assistant physical director, who had to stay in it, was threatened with lonesomitis, a disease which afflicts sheep, sheep herders, lighthouse keepers and others who lead a solitary life. Trueman got so that he became scared when he saw a human being and was learning to bark like a dog instead of talk like a man.

Now Mr. Guyett has them all on the jump. Physical Director Bassett keeps three telephones busy doing things. Boxing Instructor Sullivan, who led the life of a modern Omar Khayaam for three years and up to the date of Mr. Guyett's election, can actually be found in the boxing room betimes. Trueman, the man of all work, is kept going three ways at once, like the hero of an illegal love affair. He dares not stand still lest someone should explode a charge of dynamite under his heels.

Mr. Guyett has a great business men's class promised for next fall. He has a boxing class of 40 men, all of them strong, big and hard hitters, ready for the unfortunate Mr. Sullivan to begin on Sept. 1.

Guyett visits the club twice daily, at lunch and in the evening. He goes through it as he goes through his factory. He looks at everything, from the money in the big safe to the shine on the pots in the kitchen. The big president has certainly given that sleepy old club a fillip that has shaken it like an earthquake. It used to be a home of drones. Now it is a hive of busy bees.

GOTCH STRIPPED for FIGHTING

Frank Gotch, the champion wrestler of America, is meeting all comers at the Standard Theater, St. Louis, this week. Gotch offers $100 to the man he cannot throw in 15 minutes. It is said that Ole Donelson, whom Gotch caught by the great toe at the Music Hall last March, will go on Saturday night and try have another buck at the toe hold. If Donelson goes on with Gotch there will be a great crowd there to see.

Baseball Babble

The final game of the Cardinals-Chicago Cubs series will be played at League Park, Friday afternoon. It will be the last chance local enthusiasts will have of seeing Chance's Chicago Champions until Sept. 12. Egan and Raub and Wicker and Kling are the probable batteries for Friday afternoon. Fred Tenney's Boston Club, with Dave Brain, Cy Young and Del Howard, opens a series of four games Saturday.

Manager McCloskey has released Catcher Holmes to the Indianapolis team of the American Association, the same organization which obtained the two Jacks—Dunleavy and Burns.

The White Sox have purchased Eddie Hahn from the New York Highlanders.

Ed Walsh, who let the Cleveland Blues down with one hit last Saturday, was driven out of the box in three innings by the Lajoletes Thursday.

Collins' home run saved the Pilgrims from a shutout at the hands of the Athletics Thursday.

No professional baseball in San Francisco this season.

Outlaw players with Jimmy Sebring's Williamsport club are: Harry Gleason, Jim Delehanty, Jimmy Wolverton, Bob Unglaub, Tom Delehanty and Will Corridon.

Mr. Waddell claims that he has worked the majority of his games without support and he doesn't see why his wife needs any. "A good pitcher doesn't need support," says Rube. She acts like a minor leaguer."

The return to form of Eddie Siever has been the event of the year so far as the Detroit club is concerned.

They are calling Wagner Honus, the Crestfallen, instead of Honus, the Mighty, at Cincinnati since little Druhot let him down at the Queen City without a hit after striking him out his first time at bat.

Grand Rapids papers say that John Ganzel will make more money this year, judging from present attendance figures, than he would in two years spent in the big leagues.

Joe Sugden is batting .400 for St. Paul in the American Association and playing first base.

McGraw is in receipt of several flattering offers for his young catcher, Matty Fitzgerald. If he decides to give the youngster a season's experience in the minors, the Utica club will probably get the promising young recruit.

Danny Green seems to be deteriorating rapidly. He is playing right field for Milwaukee, but is not doing much hitting. Green's weak throwing arm is a serious handicap to him.

The Washington club will be as much of a factor in the American League race all summer as it is now if the pitchers hold out. Just now the Nationals are batting as good as any team in the American League, and in a fielding way Lave Cross is a big help to the club.

Boston enthusiasts are beginning to sour on the ex-champions. If Lou Criger gets back in the game the Pilgrims may finish strong, but just now they appear to be a second division club.

YACHTS TO SAIL ACROSS PACIFIC

Big Boats Will Start on Race From San Francisco to Honolulu.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11.—In a very few days San Francisco is to have its first sporting event since its awful catastrophe. In response to the offer of the Hawaii Yacht Club of Honolulu for a solid silver trophy valued at $500, several starters will sail out of the Golden Gate on May 19, in one of the longest races in the history of yachting and the first of its kind to be sailed across the Pacific.

The rules to govern the race are simple. Yachts are to be not less than 40 feet deck length. There will be no restrictions as to sail carried, number of crew, professional sailors or navigators. The usual rules of the road at sea will govern the race. The time allowance will be as follows: One half hour per foot of length for the entire district. Measurements to be made when all provisions are on board and the yachts ready for sea.

The race is to start from Meiggs' Wharf, San Francisco, Saturday, May 19, at 3 p. m.

The race will finish off Diamond Head Light, Honolulu. The light must be steam and within a distance of two miles. Watchmen will be on hand day and night to the time of the finish.

All Honolulu assembled to bid bon voyage to the yacht La Paloma, the pride of the Pacific Islands, which sailed from San Francisco to join the fleet in the forthcoming race. Capt. Clarence MacFarlane of La Paloma is sure of retaining the trophy in the islands.

GOSSIP of the Golfers

It is the intention of the Golf Committee of the Triple A club to hold weekly tournaments throughout the season on Saturday afternoons.

The Triple A has some very clever exponents of the old Scottish game in Guy Oliver, E. C. Clark, Frank Canter, Bonner Miller, Frank Fitzgibbon and A. J. Mitchell.

Morris Wolf will go in and out on an average of 95.

Jake Kaufman, the runner-up in the inaugural tournament last Saturday never had a club in his hand until last fall.

Ravens Open in Boston.

BOSTON, May 11.—The St. Louis Ravens open a series of four games here today with Jimmy Collins' ex-champions.

Manager McAleer with his team arrived here this morning visibly elated over their two victories at Chicago, and as Collins' charges are ensconced in last place at present, McAleer is of the opinion that he will take at least three of the four games.

The probable batteries for today are Smith and Rickey for St. Louis, Young and Graham for Boston.

College Collations

There will be no less than four field meets held Friday. At the Stadium, Smith Academy will hold its annual meet at 9 o'clock in the morning and in the afternoon at 2 o'clock, Washington's aspirants for track and field fame will hold their competition. Over at the beautiful Christian Brothers' campus, McKinley High School boys will contest for school supremacy in athletics. Yeatman will hold its meet back of the school building at 2 p. m., close to Natural Bridge road and Garrison avenue.

Company B, headed by Capt. G. W. Pickson of St. Louis scored the greatest number of points of any of the Western Military academy's companies in the annual field meet of the Upper Alton military school Thursday.

Cape Girardeau Normal defeated Kirksville Thursday 8 to 2, at Cape Girardeau, Mo.

Notre Dame beat Purdue University 4 to 2, at Notre Dame, Ind.

While taking his last workout prior to the track meet between Kansas University and Missouri at Columbia, Mo., Saturday, Capt. Driscoll of Kansas City, who was confidently counted upon as a sure winner in four events sprained his ankle so severely that he will be unable to participate in the meet Saturday.

Belcher Springs Bath House, Fourth and Lucas avenue. Open day and night.

CONCORDIA FORBIDS PROFESSIONAL BALL

Students of the Lutheran Seminary Not Allowed to Play in Trolley League.

The faculty of Concordia Seminary has issued instructions to those of its students who have been playing professional baseball that a continuation of the practice will result in their expulsion from the seminary. In consequence a number of the players called on President John J. O'Connor of the Western Amateur Athletic Union Thursday and applied for reinstatement in the A. A. U., saying that they wanted to engage in a game of baseball with St. Louis University, an institution which will not allow competition against any member who is not recognized as an amateur.

The action of the Concordia faculty is the direct result of the Washington-Concordia game of last Saturday, in which the Clerics shout out the Myrtle and Maroon, 9 to 0. Considerable comment was created at the time that Washington would play against professional players of the Trolley League, like Schuetz, Eggers and Klindwirth of Concordia, after refusing to play St. Louis University, with Lonnie Fitzporter in the line-up, and some of this adverse criticism of Washington's action reached the ears of the members of Concordia's faculty, with the result that the ban was placed on any of the institution's students playing professional ball.

Eggers, Schuetz and Klindwirth engaged in professional contests of the Trolley League simply for the purpose of earning money to aid them in paying their college expenses.

President O'Connor says that the players will be reinstated if they assure him that there will be no further dereliction from the straight and narrow path of the amateur.

The loss of Schuetz and Eggers will weaken the Ben Miller team of the Trolley League, and may cause its withdrawal from the league, as it will be a difficult matter to replace these two stars.

Piles cured without the knife by Dr. M. Ney Smith, the specialist, 814 Pine.

IT WAS ONLY RED INK.

Stains in City Hall Corridor Caused Alarm for Time.

A long trail of fresh, red stains on the marble floor of the main corridor of the City Hall caused an excited crowd to gather Friday in the vicinity of the Recorder of Deed's office. The report sped fast that some one had been stabbed, and a search for the victim of a mysterious crime was instituted.

He was found near the Twelfth street entrance in the person of a messenger boy for a stationery concern, and the boy was crying over spilt ink. He had been carrying a package of many bottles of red ink on his shoulder, and one of the bottles had been broken, its contents being distributed along the boy's line of march. Six janitors, who had been in the column of flies at the City Treasurer's office, waiting for their pay, mopped up the red trail left by the messenger boy.

JUSTICE WAS SPEEDY.

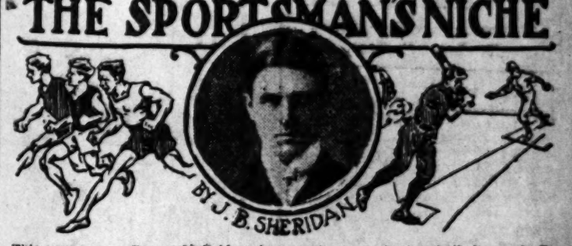

Justice almost exceeded the speed limit in the case of J. J. Coad, charged with making false affidavit and petty larceny. While a jury in the Court of Criminal Correction was out deliberating as to what term of imprisonment to give Coad on the first charge, Judge Moore in the same Court found the defendant guilty of the second charge and sentencer him to serve three months in the Workhouse. The jury a few minutes later reported that they had decided to give Coad six months in Jail.

Coad was charged with misrepresenting himself as a single man when he procured a license to marry Miss Mary Austin a few weeks ago. He was also charged with stealing $2 from Miss Austin. He asked permission to be tried by jury on the first charge and waived his right to trial by 12 of his peers on the petty larceny charge. Both cases were docketed for trial Thursday afternoon.

The evidence in the first case was heard and the jury retired. While the jury was out Judge Moore concluded to save time by trying Coad on the petty larceny charge. He beat the jury in arriving at a verdict by only a few minutes.

A few days ago Coad was acquitted by a jury in the same court of a statutory offence.

THE SPORTSMAN'S NICHE

This young man, George McBride, who plays shortstop for the Cardinal Base-Ball Club, is displaying a very pure vein of clean grit which entitles him to the respect and regard of those who love cold, unadulterated pluck in the constitution of man. In their manner of acceptance of misfortune there is a wide difference between McBride, who has been consistently and undeservedly unfortunate, and Powell, who has been occasionally and deservedly unfortunate.

McBride, a boy of model habits, quiet, good natured, good humored, a dutiful boy, takes his undeserved and provoking bad fortune with a smile, touches not a drop of liquor, goes to church every Sunday, never loses his temper and sticks to it in spite of most harassing disaster.

Powell, on the other hand, fights with wildly against an occasional frown from fortune, gives way, deserts his friends and his team and gives way to a very doxology of disappointment.

McBride, in his trouble, betrays no trust. He is true to his contract, to himself, to his manager and his friends. Although it sometimes seems that misfortune has marked him for her very own, McBride with a mind resolved and wise, sees that there is impotence in giving way to misery, and smiles bravest when misfortune buries her shafts deepest.

Powell, much the stronger physical vessel, cannot bear up under it; gives way, abandons his friends, his contract, his manager and his good name.

Truly McBride's brave bearing in the face of fortune entitles him to the respect of those who value the noblest of manly qualities, the admirable quality of moral courage.

When Chicago gamblers and carpet baggers built a racetrack at Louisville they ascertained, to their consternation, that no man could run a racetrack in Kentucky, suh, unless he was a Kaintucky gentleman, suh. Whereupon the ancient and honorable, but hitherto highly unlucrative profession of being a Kaintucky gentleman, suh, became its most profitable calling at which no Kaintucky gentleman, suh, need be ashamed to wu-uk, suh. The No'th'n carpet baggahs, suh, just had to have a Kaintucky gentleman to lend tone to their racing enterprise and they got him at $20,000 a yeah, suh. It was glory to be a Kentucky gentleman, suh, but now that the No'th'n carpet baggahs have come in to run racetracks, it is meat, drink and clothin' too, suh.

We thought Jim McAleer could manage a baseball club, but his trade of Pitcher Jacobson, who has won many games, and should not have lost any, for Willie Sudhoff, who has been knocked out of the box every time he entered it this season, has caused us to change our minds. Stone for Burkett, Howell for nothing and $6500 to boot, Jacobson for Sudhoff, Rickey for nothing are plays which may assure us in our belief that McAleer is no manager at all.

We will take great pleasure in subscribing to a fund to send Miss May Sutton, the champion female tennis player of the world, who is a poor girl, to Europe to defend her honors, but we are glad that his grandfather saw to it that no such subscription was necessary in the case of young Jay Gould, who recently made a most creditable attempt, dying only in the last of seven ditches in his assault on the court tennis championship of the world. After the fashion of Desdemona, "would that heaven had sent us all such grandfathers."

Unquestionably the undergraduates of Washington University fear not man or ghost on the baseball diamond. For the worst that can come to you there is that you get beaten and life holds fates far more horrible than this. Therefore, there is no doubting the disposition of the baseball team of Washington University to play that of St. Louis University anywhere on earth.

Gen. McGraw wants English golfers to play in his tourney. Tommy Sullivan wants to fight an English boxing champion. Truly since the last Olympic games we all seem to be seeking a soft spot.

Judging from the exterior appearance of the head of Mr. Jack Ryder we would think there was something in it, but when he says that St. Louis baseball experts rate the Cardinals a better team than the Ravens we are sure of it. Of course, the Cardinals are a better team than the Ravens. Did they not beat them six out of seven games? Of course this is a lie, but when you tell a whopper why not tell a good one.

But it seems that somewhere in the rosebud of Washington athletics there feeds a worm which destroys the bloom and the perfume of the flower.

This canker seems to have embarrassed the free play or good feeling and generous sportsmanship which is, should be and, I feel, really is the quality of the undergraduate body at Washington University. A disposition to quirk and quib, to jockey for position, to seek to gain small political points, to bar this and admit that, which has distinguished its recent athletic policy, is, I am sure, not generate of undergraduate sources. It is the nature of the college boy to be catholic in his associations and generous in his treatment of opponents. These things Washington has not been. In anything but a position to dictate, it has attempted to dictate. Her policy has not been sure and consistent. Refusing to play St. Louis University, after seeking a game, because of the presence of a reinstated professional in that team, she plays Concordia Seminary, in which are numerous actual professionals. Refusing to play St. Louis University for this reason, she allows Smith Academy, a tributary school, to do so.

It is even said that at one time Washington University went to certain pains to attempt to form a combination in which would bar some colleges from participation in athletics in this locality.

All these things were, I am quite certain, done without the knowledge of Chancellor Chaplin or of the under graduate body. It seems that there has been entirely too much assumptive busybodyism in Washington athletics, too much politics, too much alleged policy which resulted in no policy at all and too much free advice given to the undergraduates.

The effect of all this is that Washington University which should, by all means, be the leading college in the athletics of the Southwest, finds itself in a position relatively obscure and inferior. The undergraduates at Washington are of the right kind. The chancellor of the university is a man of ripe and excellent judgment. Washington wants to employ a horticulturist to discover and extirpate the malign influence which, like a worm, feeds upon the damask of the cheek of her athletics.

The Kern Juniors defeated the Vishman Juniors by a score of 30 to 29. The feature of the game was the home run made by W. Kern of the Kern Juniors. The Kern Juniors would like to arrange games with teams playing in the 12 and 13-year-old class. Address all challenges to W. Kern, 4228 A College avenue, St. Louis.

RHEUMATISM

TROUBLESOME PAINS AND ACHES

While Rheumatism is usually worse in Winter because of the cold and dampness of a changing atmosphere, it is by no means a Winter disease entirely. Persons in whose blood the uric acid, which produces the disease, has collected, feel its troublesome pains and aches all the year round. The cause of Rheumatism is a sour, acid condition of the blood, brought about by the accumulation in the system of refuse matter, which the natural avenues of bodily waste have failed to carry off. This refuse matter coming in contact with the different acids of the body, forms uric acid which is absorbed by the blood and distributed to all parts of the body, and Rheumatism gets possession of the system. Rheumatic persons are almost constant sufferers; the nagging pains in joints and muscles, are ever present under the most favorable climatic conditions, while exposure to dampness or an attack of indigestion will often bring on the severer symptoms even in warm, pleasant weather. Liniments, plasters, lotions, etc., relieve the pain and give the sufferer temporary comfort, but are in no sense curative; because Rheumatism is not a disease that can be rubbed away or drawn out with a plaster. S. S. S. is the best treatment for Rheumatism; it goes down into the blood and attacks the disease at its head, and by neutralizing the acid and driving it out, and building up the thin, sour blood, cures Rheumatism permanently. Being made entirely of roots, herbs and barks, S. S. S. will not injure the system in the least. Book on Rheumatism and any medical advice without charge.

WIFE IN LETTER TO JUDGE ASKS HIM TO RECONCILE HUSBAND

Mrs. Maulhardt Urges Judge Fisher Not to Grant Divorce Decree for the Sake of Her Children and Tells of Her Happy Married Life.

Believing that her case has a peculiar sadness that marks it as different from those which crowd the St. Louis divorce dockets, Mrs. Josephine Maulhardt has addressed a letter to Judge Fisher of the Circuit Court telling him of conditions and asking him to refuse a divorce to her husband, Emil W. Maulhardt, whose suit against her is pending.

She wrote the letter without asking the advice of her counsel or anyone else, heeding only the promptings of her own feelings. Her desire is that the divorce proceedings be dropped and that the amicable relations which existed between herself and her husband until the day of their separation be resumed.

The divorce petition was filed in December and the charges contained were of such strange character that it created comment at the time, one of them being that Mrs. Maulhardt was given to consulting fortune tellers, another that she had taken out a license to marry another man shortly before her marriage with Maulhardt, which took place March 15, 1906.

Pleads for Her Family.

Other charges were more serious and it is to these latter that Mrs. Maulhardt refers in her communication.

Quotations from the pathetic letter follow:

"Duty toward my children and the just defense of my good character and morals compel me to appeal to you for a fair consideration in the trial for divorce brought by my husband. I hope and pray my husband's desire for a legal separation will not be granted.

"O, I pray you to think of what will become of my little family should the law take from us the honor, love and protection my husband pledged me when I became his wife.

"The disgrace to his innocent little one would be lifelong and so terrible that I, as its mother, must do all in my womanly might to protect it. The world into which the child must come is hard enough without the addition of a stain on its mother's name.

"Good advice to my husband and an explanation of his errors will no doubt bring him back to his loving wife and children.

"I am willing to forgive him all that his proceedings have cost me."

In speaking of her letter to a Post-Dispatch reporter Mrs. Maulhardt said:

"Perhaps it was not right for me to write to Judge Fisher, but I felt that I must do it in justice to myself and my children. I wanted him to know that we had been happy until the last moment of our life together and yet I did not want to worry him with details.

"The case is so strangely different from most and so sad because of the children that I felt that Judge Fisher should know some things that may not come out in the testimony.

"While my daughter, 8-year-old Helen, was born of my first marriage, she was legally adopted by Mr. Maulhardt last summer when I was seriously ill and he has always been fond of her. In our happy days he used to spend his evenings explaining her school lessons to her.

"She does not understand why he is away from us and every now and then she writes him letters. The last one is not quite finished."

Child's Letter to Papa.

Mrs. Maulhardt took from the child's table a letter written in carefully made vertical letters. It read:

"Dear Papa, I have not seen you for so long that I thought I would write to you. Do you ever think of your little girl? I am well, but mamma has been feeling bad. I hope to see you some time."

"She saw him Easter Sunday at her uncle's house, and came running home, saying, 'I couldn't stay, mamma, because papa was there and he didn't kiss me.'

"I asked her why she didn't kiss him first, as she was in the habit of doing and she replied: 'I was afraid he didn't want me to.'

"I told her that she must always be the same, but she said: 'Mamma, he left us. He doesn't come to see us any more.' I assured her that that must make no difference in her actions, and she said: 'I'll do just as you want me to Jo, mamma.'

"For five months I had hoped that the divorce would not be granted. The charges against me cannot be proved. If they were true I would not respect my husband if he became reconciled with me. But they have no foundation."

STUDENTS HOOT DECISION

Friends of Young Ernest Cheer Him After Defeat.

Smith Academy's annual oratorical contest concluded with howls of dissatisfaction by the students and by cheers and yells for Finis P. Ernest Jr., when the judges did not award him a medal.

Louis C. Ginningroth was given the first prize. His oration was "A Defense of the Irish Party." Sim T. Piper won the second prize with his oration, "American Courage." Ernest and Emil Ganter received honorable mention.

The judges were Edmund H. Sears, Judge Walter B. Douglas and Rev. T. B. McLeod. Prof. Edward Jackson presented the medals. The academy mandolin and glee club rendered the music. The hall was decorated with the academy colors, red and white. About five hundred attended the contest.

ENCAMPMENT PLANNED.

A public dress parade, guard mount and drill of the First Regiment, N. G. M., drew a record-breaking crowd to the Crescent Rink, 3220 Olive street, and the officers in command hope that it will serve to augment the number of recruits. It was the first public dress parade held in two years.

All the companies, led by Company K, commanded by Capt. Inman and followed by Company G., in command of Capt. Gerhard, took part in the parade, Thursday night, under the command of Col. McKenna. Guard mount followed the drill, and then came a hop, in which nearly all of the 2000 persons present took part.

The regiment will go into encampment at Cape Girardeau July 4 for ten days. After the return monthly drills will be given.

MEETS OLD COMRADES.

The forty-fifth anniversary of the capture of Camp Jackson by Gen. Nathaniel Lyon was celebrated at Lyon Park Thursday.

Gen. Peter J. Osterhaus was guest of honor, and met for the first time since the war men who had served under him. Gen. Osterhaus was given the position of honorary chairman of the day, and made a short address in accepting the honor. In speaking of Gen. Lyon, Gen. Osterhaus said: "The State of Missouri ought to erect a monument as high as the Ozarks to that most wonderful officer and statesman."

Judge Leo Rassieur and Gen. John W. Noble also made addresses.

Adm. Sampson's Descendants.

Apparently the descendants of the late Admiral William T. Sampson will be numerous in the United States Navy, as two sons and a grandson are likely to be members of the class which will enter the naval academy this spring.

STOUT WOMEN'S CONVENTION

FOR ONE WEEK

Beginning Monday, May 7th, 1906

To demonstrate the great merits of the

NEW NEMO SELF-REDUCING CORSET.

Every first-class Corset Department which carries Nemo Corsets will participate in this Convention;—having made special arrangements to demonstrate and fit the New Nemo Self-Reducing Corset, free of charge. The Convention will be open to all.

Every stout woman who is anxious to reduce her figure should take advantage of the present opportunity to have this remarkable Corset explained and fitted. Thousands have done so during the past few months, with the most satisfactory result—a greatly reduced figure. If you don't know about this great Corset, now is the time to find exactly what you have been looking for—a Corset that will positively reduce the figure without the slightest discomfort; in fact, it will make you comfortable. Women who are physically weak, or who stand or walk much, will find this an occasion to obtain immediate relief; for the patented features of this new Corset give effective and healthful support—a result not given by any other corset.

The stout woman need worry no longer because of her too-generous figure; the remedy has been found. She is now given the means of restoring the graceful lines which are the basis of woman's physical charms. Be sure to attend this Convention. Call on your dealer without delay. Study the new Nemo Self-Reducing Corset.

The prices are $3.00 and $5.00.

This Corset will give any stout woman the best shape she ever had. It is unequaled for durability—like other Nemo Corsets, it will hold its shape until worn out. It produces results not heretofore possible. It is in a class by itself—"the Corset that never had a rival".

1—Better cigars for your money, whatever price you pay.
2—Better in EVERY way—aroma, cleanness, condition.
3—And always UNIFORM—the cigar that suits you to-day the same next month and next year.

The American Cigar Company's scientific system of handling the tobacco leaf has made it possible to guarantee absolute uniformity of quality in every one of the cigars it produces.

The American Cigar Company knows where its tobacco comes from. It maintains a great buying and storing service in each tobacco-growing district; and buys exactly the tobacco it wants. Its tobacco is all harvested under the direct supervision of its own experts, and the plants are cured in its own storing houses on the plantations.

The new two-year fermenting process is what gives to the cigar its best smoking qualities. It extracts every last trace of the original harsh greenness and develops to perfection the aromatic fragrance of choicest selected leaf.

The blending process combines in an actual blend the characteristic goodness of each required variety of leaf.

The particular brand that suits your taste to-day will be exactly the same next year—in strength, flavor and grade.

"ANNA HELD" CIGAR

5 cents

The American Cigar Company manufactures many brands of cigars from as many different "blends" to suit as many different tastes. Among all these widely varied "blends" your taste has been provided for. And of them all there is none that suits more smokers than the Anna Held.

"Anna Held" is a direct and unmistakable proof of the quality produced by these new processes of fermenting and blending. It is a smooth, rich, even smoke of mellow flavor and absolutely uniform quality.

Sold by all dealers who want to give good value.

SAVED FROM THE KNIFE

Mrs. Coulbourn of East Market, Dorchester County, Maryland, had what was supposed to be a large tumor caused by Kidney trouble. After a consultation of several physicians an operation was decided upon. Meantime she began to take and was cured by

WARNER'S SAFE CURE

A TRIAL BOTTLE OF THE WORLD'S GREATEST KIDNEY CURE SENT ABSOLUTELY FREE TO EVERY READER OF ST. LOUIS DAILY POST-DISPATCH WHO SUFFERS FROM KIDNEY, LIVER, BLADDER OR BLOOD DISEASE.

MRS. COULBOURN.

She writes of this wonderful cure: "I thought that it was my duty to let you know what your wonderful Safe Cure has done for me, as there may be somebody suffering as I was. I had a tumor and my doctor told me that I would have to go to Cambridge Hospital to be operated on. He gave me a permit to the hospital at Cambridge. The doctor examined me, and he said it was too dangerous a place to tackle in the warm season of the year. He would wait until the last of October, and he would send to Baltimore after the doctors to come down and assist him about cutting the tumor out. It was about 5 inches long, on a very dangerous artery. Returning from Cambridge I stopped at a store and bought a bottle of Warner's Safe Cure and commenced taking it according to directions, and before I had used that bottle the tumor was nearly gone, and I got another bottle and took half of that, and I was finally cured when the last of August came without being operated on. If you wish to use my name you are perfectly welcome to do so. I am known in Cambridge and in Dorchester and several other counties. I reside near Cabin Creek.—Lillian F. Coulbourn, R. New Market, R. F. D. No. 1, Md."

Does your back ache? Are you obliged to pass your water frequently and with much irritation? Are you nervous? Do you get dizzy easily? If so, your kidneys and bladder are affected, and you should attend to curing them at once and thus prevent most serious complications and fatal results. You should take Warner's Safe Cure. It is pleasant and will set your kidneys and urinary organs right. These once right, health and long life are yours. Thousands have had wonderful cures, and many gladly testify by letters what Warner's Safe Cure has done for them in curing and preventing all forms of kidney and bladder troubles, female weakness, Bright's disease and all diseased conditions of the liver and blood.

Warner's Safe Pills move the bowels gently and aid a speedy cure. WARNER'S SAFE CURE is now put up in two sizes, and is sold by all druggists, or direct, at 50 cents and $1.00 a bottle. Refuse substitutes containing harmful drugs which injure the system.

TRIAL BOTTLE FREE

To convince every sufferer from diseases of the kidneys, liver, bladder and blood that WARNER'S SAFE CURE will cure them, a trial bottle will be sent, ABSOLUTELY FREE, postpaid, to any one who will write WARNER'S SAFE CURE CO., Rochester, N. Y., and mention having seen this liberal offer in the St. Louis Daily Post-Dispatch. The genuineness of this offer is fully guaranteed. Our doctors will also send medical booklet containing descriptions of symptoms and treatment of each disease, and many convincing testimonials FREE to every one.

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE. REAL ESTATE FOR SALE. REAL ESTATE FOR SALE. REAL ESTATE FOR SALE. REAL ESTATE FOR SALE. REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

We have been instructed by the Connecticut Realty Company to dispose of the remaining unsold lots owned by it in TOWER GROVE HEIGHTS at AUCTION TOMORROW!

Beginning at one o'clock, rain or shine. 59 lots will be sold and our instructions are to let them go, regardless of prices, in order to wind up the affairs of that corporation.

In less than 14 months we have sold over 1000 lots in this subdivision, but this is not so remarkable as the fact that nearly 500 houses have been erected there in that time. The rapidity with which these lots sold and the great building activity are sufficient arguments as to the desirability of the property and that it must have its attractions.

In buying a lot the wise purchaser will first look for a healthy site, and, secondly, will study the direction of the movement of population, knowing that where the crowd goes, high prices will go.

Tower Grove Heights is high, dry and healthy—a visit there will convince anyone of that fact.

This Subdivision is already feeling the effects of the enormous building movement which began last spring, and which is going on steadily. Houses mean population and population means increased values. To look over the ground will tell the story more eloquently, more convincingly than a dozen columns of glowing descriptions.

Purchasers at the auction will get the benefit of this phenomenal building activity.

Those desiring home sites in a section that is a residence section, or who have funds for investment in real estate, who do not attend this sale will miss a grand opportunity.

The terms are so reasonable that any thrifty person can easily buy a lot—ONE-FIFTH cash, balance in 1, 2, 3 and 4 years at 5%.

Tomorrow will be your last opportunity to purchase a lot in Tower Grove Heights at your own price.

GAS FOR COOKING

It Is Easier For You

It is easy for you to spend less time in the kitchen and to make that time comfortable.

It is easy when you cook with gas. You have not the work of starting a fire and no work of cleaning up ashes, soot and dirt after the cooking is finished.

It is comfortable because the heat is only where you need it.

Have you ever thought of that?

If you don't find it is cheaper to cook with gas or don't get the results we promise, let us know at once, and one of our women instructors will call on you and show you how. This service is free.

See ranges in operation at your nearest dealer or at our salesroom.

Gas Ranges $15.00 and $17.00

Payable $3.00 at time of order; balance $1.00 monthly.

BANK OF COMMERCE UP FOUR POINTS

Very Good Demand Lifts This Security to Sales at $331.

National Bank of Commerce was the feature of the early trading on the Stock Exchange today, the price rising $4 per share on sales at $330 and $331. The buying demand was good at the close and the stock was wanted at $331.50.

Commonwealth Trust was also very strong and rose to sales at $329, compared to preceding transfers at $325. State National Bank sold in a small way at $195 and other issues in this class showed a strong upward tendency.

The inquiry in the traction stocks was only moderate and United Railways preferred at $83.75 was the only seller. The range of prices on the common stock and bonds, however, was higher, the latter selling at $87.75.

Mexican Government 5s were the only active bond issue.

STOCKS ARE HIGHER IN EASTERN MARKET

Good Buying Is Noted for Both Long and Short Account.

NEW YORK, May 11.—The tone of the stock market at the opening today was very confident and prices showed advances all along the line. Good orders were in the market from the arbitrage houses, and local commission houses also are at last inclined to advise the purchase of securities conservatively.

News over night is all favorable. The crop report on winter wheat has had a beneficial influence on the granger shares, and the coalers, both soft and hard, reflect the improved conditions in the laboring world. The money market shows little cause for uneasiness.

The Early Market.

The preliminary estimates of cash changes today will serve to give indication of the bank statement tomorrow. A good showing is expected, and if the apparent errors in the statement of the past two weeks are rectified there should be a substantial reserve. The continued strength of demand sterling will withhold temporarily any imports of gold on a large scale, but the indications are that we shall have further imports in the near future.

Considerable bullishness is expressed on the market and it is a noteworthy fact that many of the best houses on the street have been very heavy purchasers, while advising extreme conservatism among their clients. This is the usual tactics, and the customers will probably have the advice to buy when a market for the securities purchased is desired. Great Northern was again a conspicuous feature of the early market and as was to be expected, when the situation cleared, rumors that the ore land deal with the United States Steel Corporation is practically completed, are again going the rounds. The stock sold above 305 in the early market, which is an advance in just one week, since the panicky break of $30 per share, the low price reached by the security while the selling was at its height being $275. Northern Pacific and Union Pacific were both firm in sympathy. The metal securities all reflected an excellent absorption, and foreigners were buying the United States Steel stocks. Money loaned in the early market at 3¾ per cent.

The Closing.

Big buying orders appeared in the list after the noon hour and the market took on a very animated appearance. The absorption was evidently backed by great confidence, and prices were carried up rapidly. The metal stocks rose very sharply and Union Pacific came in for a substantial rise. Other granger shares rose in sympathy and the feeling in financial circles was more cheerful than at any time since the recovery started. There was little of importance in the general news, but absolutely no feature on which to base the growths for a serious reaction. Frisco banking dispatches were assuring and no further insurance troubles are looked forward to. Realizing was in progress at the closing, but the last prices were at a materially higher level.

BULLS CONTROL THE GRAIN PIT

Squeeze of May Shorts and Damage Reports Carries Prices Upward.

A squeeze of the shorts in the May wheat options carried prices on all futures up today and the close was firm around the high level.

Market sentiment generally was more bullish than in months past, and some buying was encountered from commission house sources.

Crop damage reports were coming in quite freely, dry weather and Hessian fly damage being reported in certain important sections. The decreased acreage in the Government report yesterday has offset also to some extent the improved position of the plant.

Local receipts were again liberal and the shipments moderate. The cash market is strong and millers report a good demand still prevalent for the best grades of grain.

Minneapolis and Duluth reported only 119 cars against 226 last week, 84 last year and 57 two years ago. Minneapolis stocks show a decrease of 950,000 bu for the week. Clearances of wheat and flour were 160,000 bu.

ARGENTINE SHIPMENTS.

The Argentine shipments were moderately heavy, showing:

	Wheat.	Corn.
This week	3,104,000 bu	2,234,000 bu
Last week	3,216,000 bu	2,303,600 bu
Last year	3,296,000 bu	1,364,000 bu
Two years ago	3,664,000 bu	394,000 bu

Shipments wheat Jan. 1 to date..52,884,000 bu
Same period year ago..........50,496,000 bu
Shipments corn Jan. 1 to date...11,286,000 bu
Same period year ago..........12,549,000 bu

Foreign markets were quiet, with an upward tendency. Liverpool closed ¼d higher on wheat and unchanged on corn.

The Modern Miller says: Reports that dry weather is unfavorably affecting winter wheat conditions are being received, but are few and scattered, except in Northern Missouri. Drouth has been generally prevalent for several weeks in that locality and the wheat crop is suffering seriously from the lack of moisture. Otherwise, nothing especially favorable in regard to the condition of the crop is reported, but there is need of rain over most of the winter wheat belt.

The corn market was influenced to a certain extent by the advance in wheat, but reports of more favorable planting conditions made the bulls barely confident of their position. Shorts were buyers of May in the late market. Old corn is still well held by the farmers and the movement is comparatively light. Clearances were 616,000 bu.

Oats were strong on good domestic and export demands and the firmness in other grains.

Primary movement—Receipts wheat, 183,470 bu, against 100,714 bu last year. Corn—251,375 bu, against 108,305 bu last year. Oats—528,800 bu, against 216,980 bu last year.

TWO ATTORNEYS' HOMES DYNAMITED

Families Uninjured in Explosions at Hammond, Ind., and Danville, Ill.

BOTH CASES MYSTERIES

Indiana Prosecutor Had Received Threatening Letters Signed "Black Hand."

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

HAMMOND, Ind., May 11.—While his wife and daughter were asleep and he was at his lodge last night, Prosecuting Attorney David E. Boone's home was partially wrecked by dynamite. Neither Mrs. Boone nor her daughter were injured.

The police have been unable to get a clew. Boone believes that the dynamiting was the work of friends of a man whom he prosecuted for murder last year, and who was sentenced to be hanged, but was pardoned by Gov. Hanley. Since that time Boone has received threatening letters signed by the "Black Hand."

ILLINOIS ATTORNEY'S HOME BADLY DAMAGED.

DANVILLE, Ill., May 11.—While Attorney Frank Lindley and his family were asleep in the upstairs apartments, an attempt was made to wreck their handsome residence with dynamite. The explosion shattered the rear stone porch, and broke several windows in Lindley's house and in nearby residences.

The Lindleys escaped injury. Neither the attorney nor the police can assign any motive for the outrage. There is no clew.

600,000 MUST GO BACK TO KENTUCKY

Gov. Beckham Commands Native Sons to Return for Gala Week.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

FRANKFORT, Ky., May 11.—Six hundred thousand former Kentuckians are urged by Gov. Beckham to pack their grips and hike back to the Blue Grass State, for the four-day period from June 13 to 17 is "home-coming week" in Louisville, and the fatted calf is to be slaughtered in earnest. The Governor puts it up to the loyal sons os follows in a proclamation which he issued today:

"Wherever you have wandered, into whatever lands or climes you may have gone to take up your abode, you are now by parental authority summoned back to the proud old State that gave birth to you or to your forefathers.

"The old dinner horn, that in days of yore told of the approaching meal, has been taken down from the wall and there issues from its sonorous and hospitable mouth a trumpet call reaching the remotest corners of the earth and breathing into the ear of every homesick Kentuckian the musical and irresistible appeal that he drop all else and forthwith begin his pilgrimage back to his native heath.

Back to the Old State.

"A joyous welcome awaits you. As the gentle spring warms into life the beauties of nature, so will the kindly glances and friendly grasp of your old friends in Kentucky inspire in you, if possible, a greater and tenderer love for the State you once left.

"Now, therefore, as Governor of the commonwealth of Kentucky, I, J. C. W. Beckham, do by these presents and by the authority of the parent, which Kentucky claims over all her children, even unto the third and fourth generation, command each and every former Kentuckian, whether separated from us by imaginary State lines or broad seas, to come back home. If he be at the plow, the forge, the counting room, the business office or in whatever employment, let him for the time cease his work and return home.

"Men, women and children who possess the priceless heritage of having a drop of Kentucky blood in their veins must obey these commands and fail not to be with us during this gala period."

CUPID IN BIG HURRY.

Aged Illinoisan Renews Request for a License.

Cupid is in a hurry about the marriage of R. C. Wilson and Mrs. Mary Harper, both of Neoga, Ill. City Register Regan Thursday received a second letter from Wilson, bearing a special delivery stamp and containing a money order for $1.50, requesting that the license, which he asked for in a letter a few days ago, be forwarded at once. The letter announces that all preparations have been made for the wedding to take place Sunday.

Wilson says he is 73 years of age and his bride-elect 64. The City Register returned the money order. The wedding probably will have to be postponed unless Mr. Wilson can apply in person at St. Louis or elsewhere for the certificate.

Architects Not Needed.

Mayor Wells has been informed by President Trueblood of the St. Louis Architectural Club of the receipt of a letter from L. C. Mulgardt, a former St. Louis architect, now in San Francisco, advising that local architects defer going to that city at this time. Mr. Mulgardt says that the building and street ordinances which have been passed since the earthquake will delay the work of construction so that there will not be urgent need for architects for some time.

Will Support Bond Issue.

The North St. Louis Business Men's Association will support the free bridge bond issue. The association pledged its support to the entire bond issue at a meeting Thursday night. The application for a franchise by the McKinley line for a terminal line in St. Louis was discussed. It was generally favored, provided no tracks be laid on Ninth street.

Attacked by Three Men.

Max Smoguer, 43 years old, of 5 Locust street, was taken to the City Dispensary Thursday night suffering from an attack made upon him by three men at Fourth and Locust streets. He says that he was standing near the corner when the men approached him and one of them hit him in the face. The other two joined in the assault, one of them biting him and the other kicking him.

CLEVELAND WON'T BE A CANDIDATE

Declares Emphatically He Will Never Again Make Presidential Race.

Special to the Post-Dispatch.

PHILADELPHIA, May 11.—According to his own declaration, Grover Cleveland will never again ask the American people to send him to the White House, nor will he permit anybody else to make the request for him. He made this statement as emphatically as possible when questioned yesterday.

"Will you ever again permit your name to be used as a presidential candidate?" was the question put to the former President.

"Positively not!" exclaimed Mr. Cleveland. "Not under any circumstances."

CRUNDEN IS IMPROVED.

Librarian and Wife Abandon European Visit.

Frank P. Crunden has received word from the bedside of his brother, Librarian F. M. Crunden at New York, that the condition of the librarian is somewhat improved and that hopes are now entertained for his recovery.

Mr. Crunden has been critically ill for three weeks, having been stricken April 18 with thrombosis, causing partial paralysis. He and his wife were to have left for Europe on the day Mr. Crunden became ill, but the ship was delayed one day and the librarian was unable to sail. Mrs. Crunden now announces that the European visit will be abandoned.

TRAIN ROBBERS IN POSSE'S TRAP

Imperial Limited Bandits Surrounded in Woods—Indians Help Sheriff.

KAMLOOPS, B. C., May 11.—The robbers who held up the Imperial Limited are surrounded in the woods near Campbell's Meadow, southwest of Kamloops.

Sheriff Wood has sent a messenger to town for more Indians to assist in the capture.

The messenger declares there is no chance for the robbers to escape, as there are more than 100 men in the posse.

COTTAGE BILL OPPOSED.

Temperance Advocates Protest Against Pending Bill.

Resolutions protesting against the reopening of the cottage in Forest Park were presented Friday to the Board of Public Improvements by William H. O'Brien, chief of the Knights of Father Mathew, and Rev. Father Coffey, acting as a committee. The resolutions were adopted at a meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Knights of Father Mathew, held Thursday at St. Leo's Parochial School Hall.

The 500 persons present unanimously subscribed to the resolutions. Father Coffey declared the Council bill for the sale of refreshments in the park is of so vague a character that the person leasing the cottage might sell liquor. He argued against the sale of liquor in the park. Other speakers were Mrs. Lake and Dr. Saraghan.

PRIEST FAINTS AT TABLE.

Father Conway Overcome While Addressing Credit Men.

The dinner of the St. Louis Credit Men's Association at the Jefferson Hotel was marred by the illness of Rev. Father J. J. Conway, a member of the faculty of St. Louis University, who suddenly became faint when he arose to speak on "Commercial Credit, a People's Blessing or a Nation's Curse."

After a few remarks, made apparently under great physical strain, Father Conway gasped, "It's very hot here. I'm afraid I cannot go on." He sank back into his seat and was immediately surrounded by a number of sympathetic men. After a few minutes Father Conway retired.

The other speakers of the evening were Judge Leo Rassieur and E. S. Purdy.

Dental gold and porcelain crowns and bridges, by a specialist. Dr. E. C. Chase, southeast corner 6th and Locust.

ROBBED BY A NEGRESS.

Pine Street Man Loses Watch, Diamonds and Money.

The police are searching for a negress, who, according to the description given by Edward E. Erfer, weighs over 200 pounds.

It cost Erfer, who lives at 1537 Pine street, a valuable gold watch, a diamond worth $200 and $20 in currency to obtain such detailed information regarding the negress. Late Thursday night, as he was passing 1417 Pine street, the negress attempted to snatch his watch. He pursued her into the rear yard, where he fell. The woman immediately sat upon him, robbed him of the articles named, struck him in the face and made her escape.

Asks Time, Seizes Watch.

Never again will Peter Martin of 4110 Finney avenue tell a stranger the time of the day. He was standing at the corner of Jefferson and Franklin avenues, when a man walked up to him and asked what time it was. Martin turned the face of his watch to the stranger, who grabbed the timepiece and ran.

Come Tomorrow and Compare!

THAT'S our invitation to the public, cordial and sincere. Come feeling free to criticise, to mentally compare our goods and prices with those of other stores, for it is by the light of comparison that our values loom up greatest. The announcements of this store should not be confused with those less conservative, less careful of their utterances. Our claims to underselling do not consist merely of an avalanche of adjectives, but are backed by a bulwark of facts. When we have something to say we say it briefly and to the point. We endeavor to make every word count—every sentence must bear its message of saving to the people. Daily The Model grows in public confidence—daily its prestige increases—daily its benefits become more widely known. There must be a reason for this. There is a reason, just as there is a reason for every other great success. No premiums, BUT VALUES—merchandise of unquestioned reliability—no promises that can't be fulfilled—no discrimination, but a square deal to all. There you are—the whole story in a nutshell.
